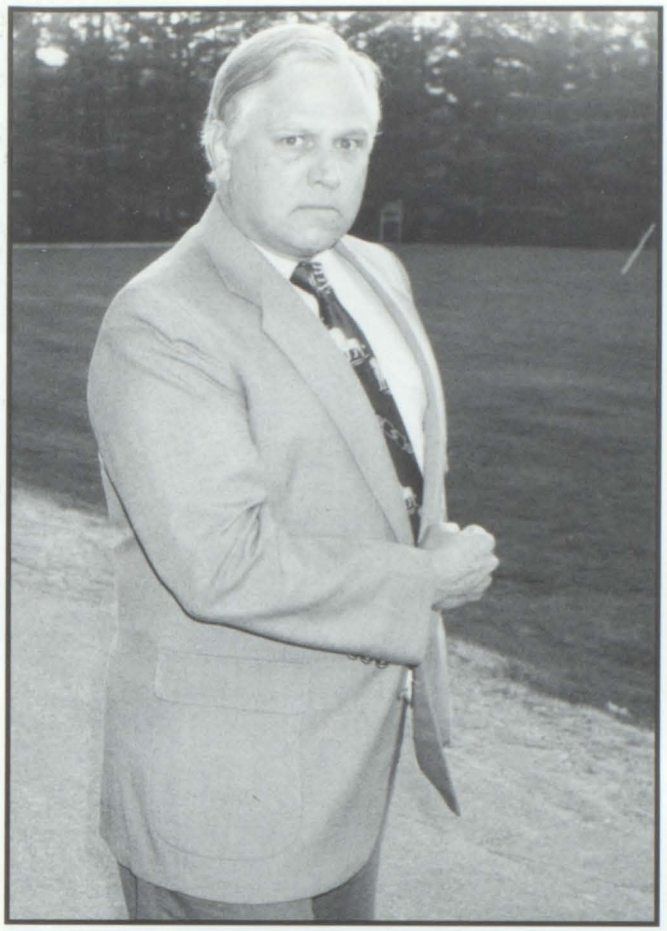
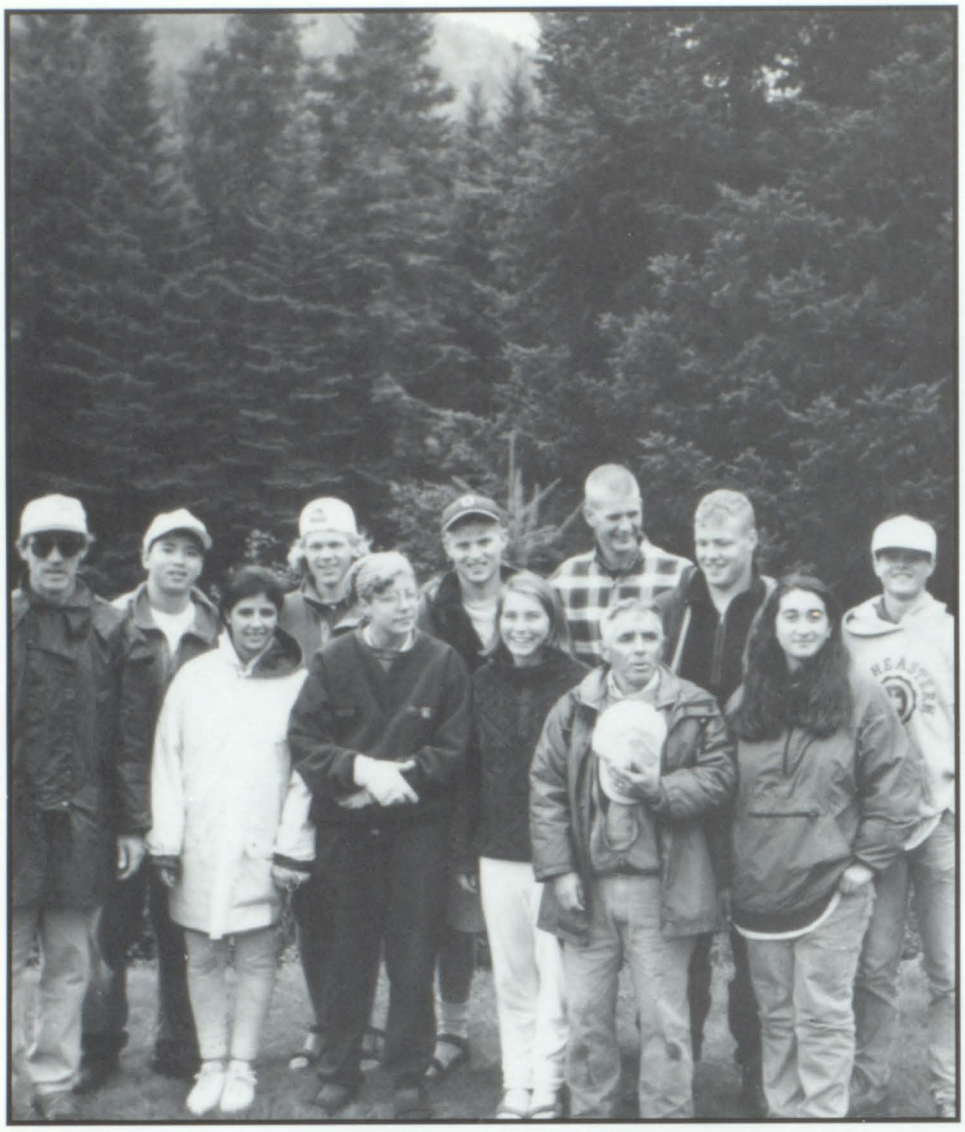
Dedication

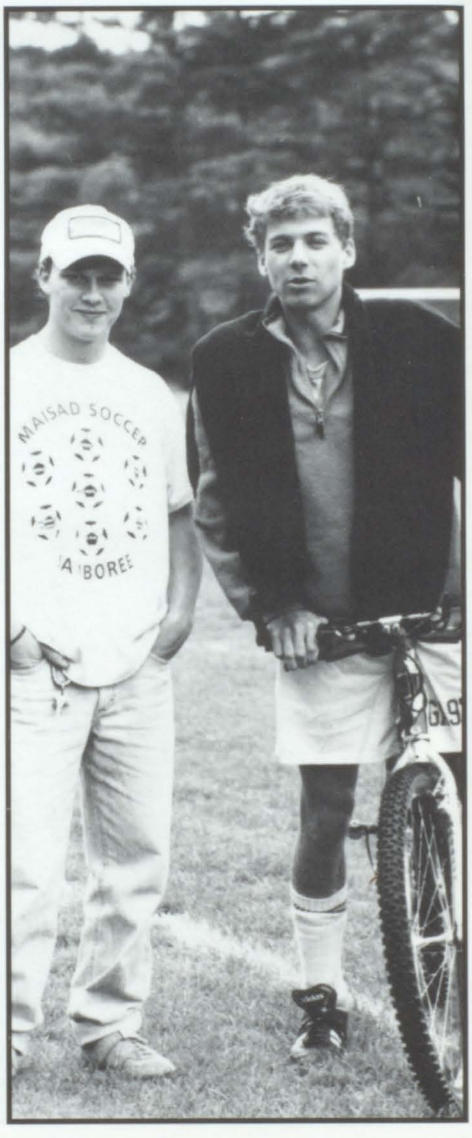
Gould is a community where people go beyond expectations. The Senior class choose to dedicate the Yearbook to members of the community who have proven this true time and time again. Kirk and Martha Siegel will be a missed team in Publications and the bookstore, respectively; almost without saying, Mrs. Todd absence in the bookstore will be felt by all; Rudy Penczer has braved the halls of Davidson, and touched us all with his morning assembly that told the story of his fiance; and the welcoming face of Alberta Merrill greeted many at the Admissions Office. The contributions these people made to the Gould community are too great to list. In dedicating the Yearbook to you, we hope that you realize what a difference your energy and positive spirit has made.

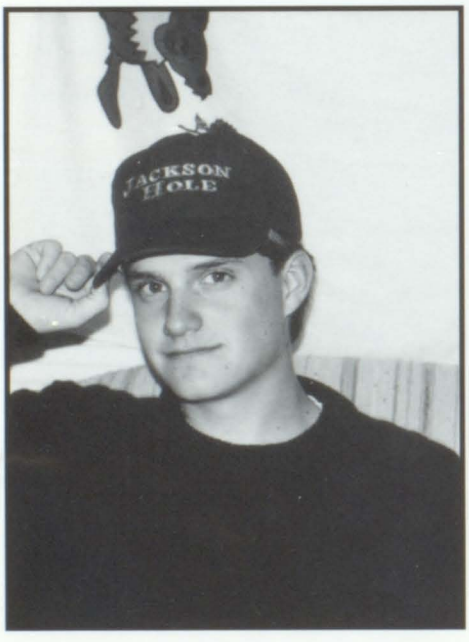
Senior Appreciation - 1994



Mr. Gardner is a student's teacher. He has been on the staff at Gould for 6 years, and in that time he has touched us all, especially this graduating class. His jokes and love for life have made him a teacher that students like to listen to. Acts such as solo dish duties, satirical jokes, and his dedication to the Dr. R.D. Way have made him one of Gould's most memorable. Bon Gardner is a teacher that students will never forget.

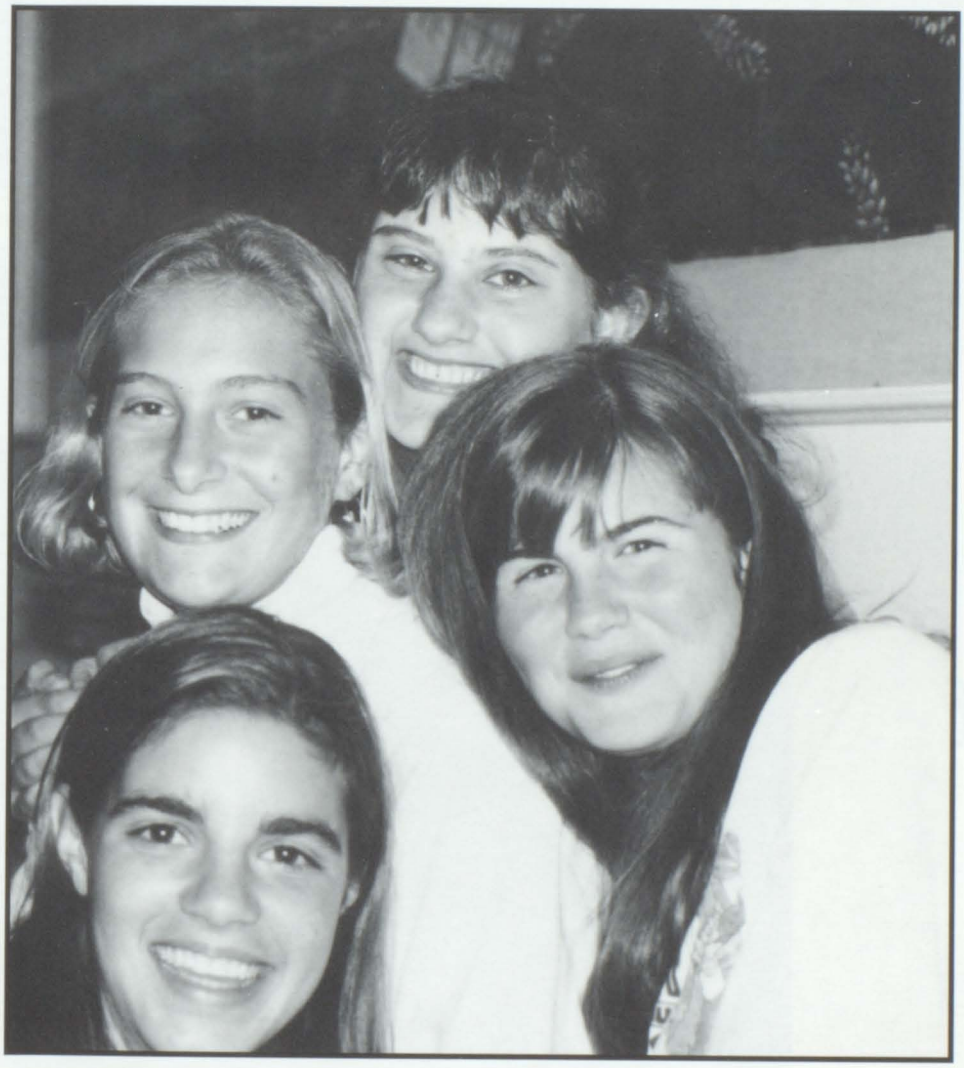






A soggy orientation group; Bean Falby; Matt Thurston & Chris Montgomery; Yoda; Brian Callahan.

Once you get people laughing, they're listening and you can tell them almost anything.



Running clockwise- Amy Swinton & Jill Huntsberger; Brittany Cooper, Brandon Fulford, Tom Eckfeldt: Phobe, Becca Whitely, Gwen Stockwell, Abby McCammon.

Always Look On The Bright Side Of Life
Some things in life are bad they can really make you mad
Other things just make you swear and curse
When you're chewing on life's gristle
Don't grumble. Give a whistle
And this will help things turn out for the best . . .
And . . .
. . . always look on the bright side of life . . .
always look on the bright side of life . . .
If life seems jolly rotten
There's something you've forgotten
And that's to laugh and smile and dance and sing.
When you're feeling in the dumps
Don't be silly chumps
Just purse your lips and whistle
-that's the thing
For life's quite absurd
And death is the final word
You must always face the curtain with a bow
Forget about your sin - give the audience a grin
Enjoy it-it's your last chance anyhow
So always look on the bright side of life.
-Monty Python
"Don't jump. It's not worth it."-Dan Barker
"Tootaloo, go with god, and don't expect any wooden nickels."-George Carlin
"Farewell, farewell till we meet again. Peace be with you. And my the forces of evil become confused on the way to your house."-George Carlin
Thanks to Mom & Dad, Dennis, Donald, Deddy, Sarah, and Mr. Fiske.

I would first like to thank my mother for everything she has done for me. Without her guidance I know I couldn't be where I am today. Mom, I owe you my success and most of all I owe you my life.
Fast Eddys Bad Boy Club: THE BOY'Z
Peck: Stay bad, keep skiing in the woods, and remember I'm pretty much extreme!
Luke: Shaka to the bra! That's my boy! Don't ever forget about the only club that you ever belonged to that meant something. Stay Locall.
Harlo: It's all in the hair; that's my boy. Stay strong, keep skiing, and stay off the court. Oh yea one more thing, don't you ever forget, "i got your back".
D-Money- No longer my straight edge bad boy, we made it, no more third floor. Stay smart, keep skiing, but stay out of the trees, your not extreme.
Pat: Someday when I'm a pro triathlete, I'll look back and say my favorite guy that I ever trained with was a kid in high school. That would have to be you, but you'll probably be the one who gets famous and talks about me. We'll screw it, whether I get famous or not, you're still my boy.
Mathews: ever had a burrito or what? The Crows rule. We'll go see them again.
Shubert; I'm speechless.
Po, Lia, Liz, Briggeta, Maggie, Becca, Gwen, Chris, Ladies - I love ya!
Oh yea, all those people I made fun of, I meant every word I said!

JOSH OTTEN

Mom & Dad- Life doesn't come with an instruction book, that's why we have parents. I love you both. Mom, I actually cut my own meat these days.
Nicole-Root 3 = 9, downhill?, secret spots, baby voices, etc . . . Don't forget me because I surely won't forget you.
Mere&BJ- We survived each other . . . barely.
Dee$- Flaps down baby. You my cracka!
Luke- We've been friends for exactly all our lives (well, you had two days alone) I hope we stay friends for the best of it.
"E" - I had a great summer . . . really. By the way, Sharon "is" the best.
Abi- Remember that time we went winter camping?
Beca- You're really not stupid, I was just foolin' with ya.
JP-Next time you have to go to the bathroom and there's a substitute teacher . . . just hold it buddy, we don't need the mess.
The world should remember this . . . "Wherever you go . . . there you are"(Anonymous)

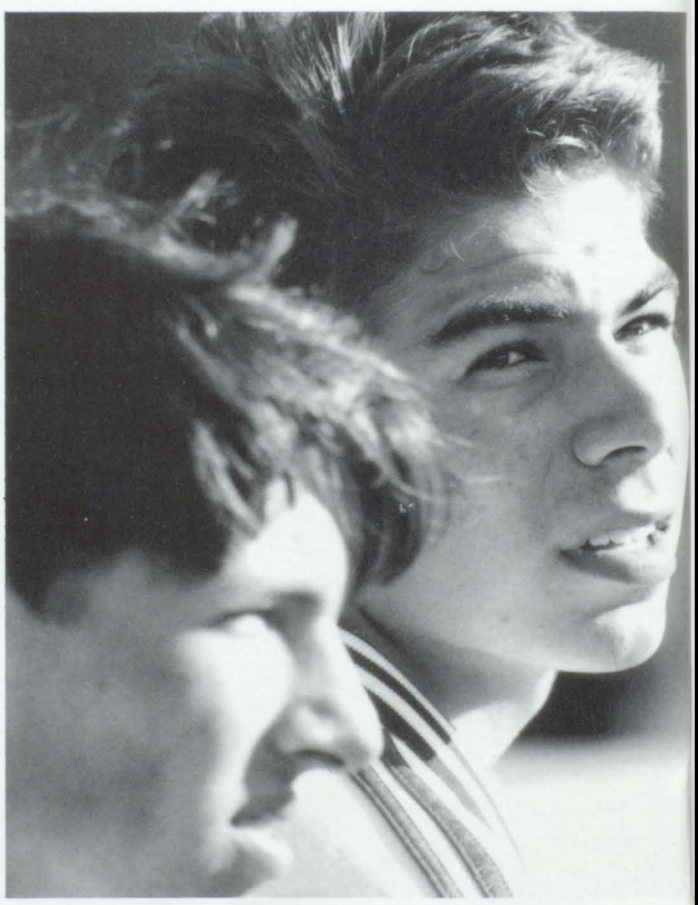
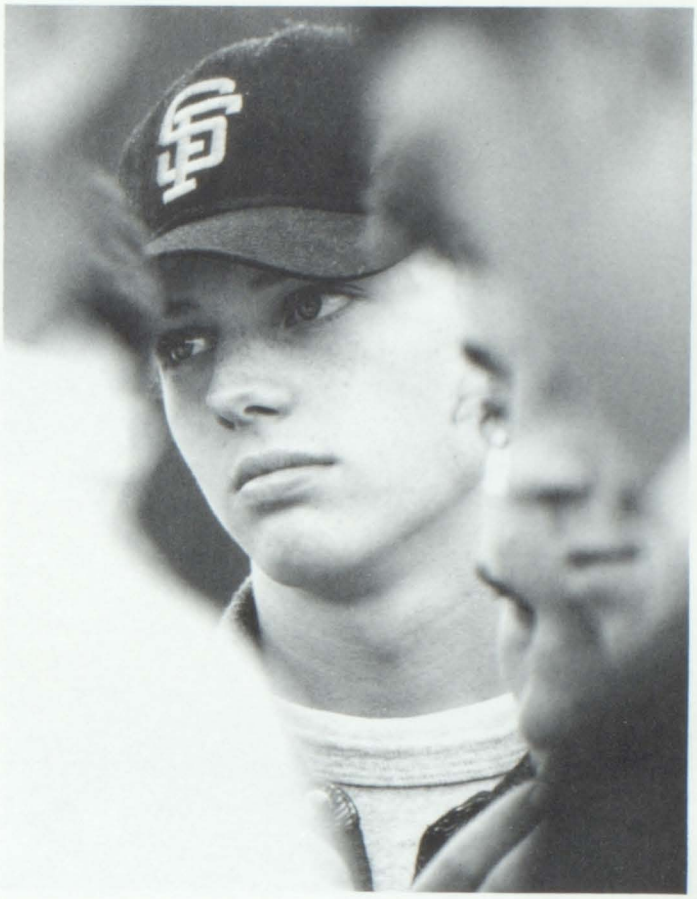
DARYL SEITZER

First I need to thank my parents for giving up their retirement to get me out of F.H.S. for two years.
The Boys: We made it. It was two great years that you guys made for me.
Harlow: You brought me here so I owe you "Ice Man."
Cote: Stay Mellow.
Peck: You're my badboy.
Mathews: If I see you on a rice burner some day, I'll know the world is over. Get a hog!
JO: You're my cracker, go to Lehigh.
Shinzo: Only you know the wrath of Eddy & Seitz on third floor Davidson.
Fast Eddy: Remember there are just two decisions in life. Fun or fitness. Which one is it "Maverick," you've got the goods, use them.
Luke: At least one of my boys snowboards.
Leah: Stay rough, keep skiing, and stay away from football players.
Brigitta: You know I'm still golden, but some things never change. Thanks for trying.
Becca: I hope you learn what ripped means.
Abi: I knew you'd end up skiing this year.
Dan: So bro we're both grown up, I just wish you'd still pour my milk for me.
Darren: Well now I know what Northampten was like, keep lifting your muscle head.
Dowdswell: Hope you enjoyed your junior year in paradise.
Kim: I had a couple of great summers with you. Neandrathol man says it was much fun.
Holly: I'm sorry if you didn't enjoy your extra time in Bethel, but I tried. Don't let any a.h. bees get you because they will every time.



LUKE GRAY



Mom, I am grateful to you for your support of my hobbies, whatever they might be. You are the strongest person I know, and someday I hope to be as strong.
Dad, I owe you far more than I could possibly return in a lifetime. You have taught me that it is the simple things that count and hard work will get you anywhere. Molly. you are the nicest person I know, thanks for making me eat garbage.
Wende, I also thank you for all the opportunities that you have given me. Jim O., the best big brother a rolley kid who was afraid of water could ask for.
I'd like to thank the boys of Gould Academy who made my experience there so much more enjoyable: Greg, Pat, Eric, Jesse, Shinzo, John O., Po, Fast Eddy, Daryl, and whoever else I may have missed. To the local boys I would also like to say thanks. Josh P. for all his caring attitude. (C&C) Nate H. for being just himself. Zach C. for being able to understand. Josh C. for going to S.B. with me. Nathan B. for taking me out with the guys. Dave N. for owning the Chevy Luv machine and SAS for naming it. Josh O. for being there since day one. To Betsy Johnson I would like to say thanks also. Thanks for giving me the chance.

Memories- Ocean city, Flushable baby association, black mountain, Roma, Trapani, S. Vito Lo Capo, Elvio's, the Gap with Leslie, watching scary movies with Meg.
Per mia famiglia e amicos a Sicilia: Grazie per vostro ospitalita e benevolenza. Mi manchi e ricordo Voi sempre.
Mum-I'll laugh at the good times, cry at the bad, but I'll always be thankful for our memories we had. Thank you for everything! we've been through a lot or at least I've put you through a lot. I love you! Hey, maybe I'll eventually get some tact, (maybe not)
Dad-Thank you for always standing behind me on all of my decisions. You don't know how much I appreciate it. You really mean a lot to me. Remember? If I haven't taken the time to say I love you . . . . . I DO!!
Josh- We've gotten really close the past few years and I hope that will continue. I don't know what I'd do without your golfing statistics, legos lying all over the floor, boobey traps, and of course your Tom Cruise haircut. Who'd ever think that going to the bathroom on somebody would turn into a great friendship! Love Always.

SIGRID STANLLY

"One final paragraph of advice: Do not burn yourselves out.
Be as I am- a reluctant enthusiast, a part time crusader, a half hearted fanatic. Save the other half of yourselves and you lives for pleasure and adventure. It is not enough to fight for the land, it is even more important to enjoy it. While you can, while it's still here. So get out there, and hunt and fish and mess around with your friends, ramble out yonder and explore the forests, encounter the grizzly, climb the mountains, bag the pecks, run the rivers, breath deep of that yet sweet and lucid air, sit quietly for a while and contemplate the stillness, that lovely mysterious and awesome space. Enjoy yourselves, keep your brain in your body, your body active and alive, and I promise you this much, I promise you this one sweet victory over your enemies, over those desk bound people with their hearts in a safe deposit box and their eyes hypnotized by desk calculators. I promise you this: you will outlive those bastards."
"No day is ever over if it leaves a memory."
Thank you- you know who you are.

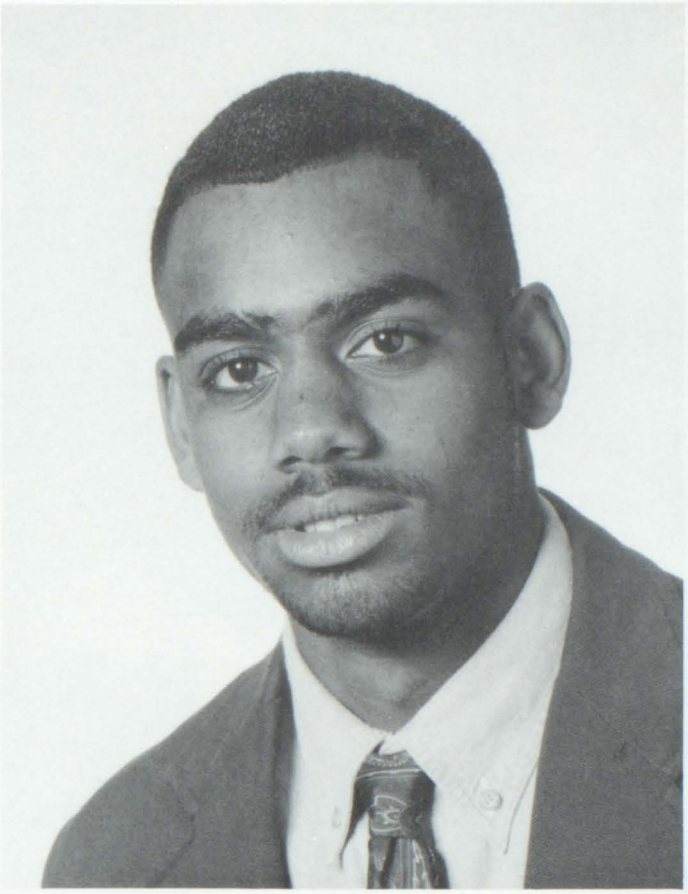
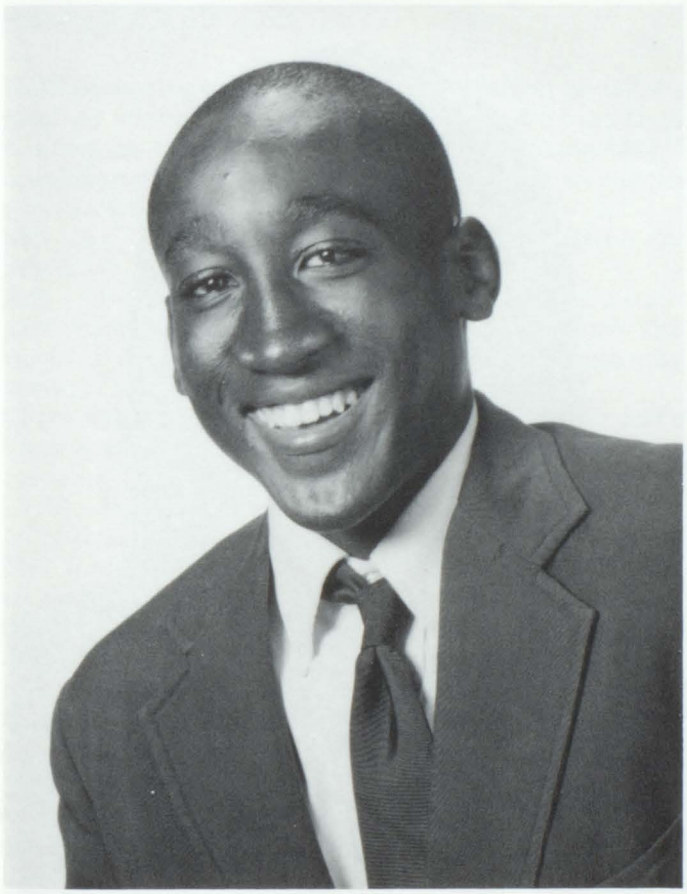
I'll miss you. "Where's my mind?"
Matt, Dana, Star of Peace, where ever you are, I'm with ya.
Gwen, Punk Rock Girl- Anarchy at Gould Academy. I'll never forget it.
B.D., L.G., A.S., A.P., C.R., D.H., S.V., and anyone else who was ever there, Thanks. Goodbye, farewell, peace be with you, and may the forces of evil get confused on the way to your house.
To those who never bothered. Someday you will see, someday you'll know. I already do.
Madame Ouwinga, Mrs. Owen, Mom - You have shown me who I am. You are the strongest women I know, thank you for the guidance, trust, honest, and knowledge.
"I'm not a vegetarian, I eat Beef Jerky." Love and trust to everyone.

DAVID ORTIZ



Thanks to mom and dad for being there all four years for me. I made it and didn't let them down.
Thanks to the Bakers for dealing with me all three year and Mr. McGuire for handling me during my hardest of all.
To all my teachers past and present thanks for the education. Special thanks to Mr. Rackliffe, Noodles, Mr. Dohrman (for basketball) and The Mac. You guys were my father figures and I appreciate the advice I was given.
Walker, you may not read this, but thanks for everything. Without you I would have been lost forever.
Seniors we made it. Thank god I was getting tired of you guys. Special congrads to all four year seniors. It's been fun.
Josh O- we had our differences but you was always my boy.
Eric H- Keep the hair low and you'll be alright. Might even get a girl.
Steamrolla- We'll have to keep in touch so I can spank you in some ball.
Josh P.-I know you got my tape but its alright. Think of "Jiggstown" as a present.
K.Dog- What more can a guy ask for than a brother like you. I will never put you under anyone and I will never forget you. I have a lot of respect for you, you know that. I'll be talking to you soon so later. Remember great minds think alike. Alright
To my B-ball crew/The boys, I didn't forget you.
Those who I forgot I didn't forget.
Peace Out Gould.



KORRIE MCINTYRE

First, I'd like to thank my parents because they stood by me for all four years, even when I wasn't doing all that well. They taught me many things along the way. So now I'd like to say thank you and that what you taught me wasn't forgotten.
Mr. Dohrman, I just want to say thank you for putting up with me on the court for four years. Thanks to his wife Debbie, Ben and, Anna for being friends.
Mr. Rackliffe, hopefully by the time you read this you would have already learned how to juggle, but probably not. Adios Olanrewandru- gooneygoogoo, what Lanny? Go back to E.S.L. You didn't think I remembered your name did you?
Shawn- I'm out kid. Show em whose boss on the baseball diamond.
Chip- Thanks for all the food, the waterbottle, your headphones, and all the other stuff I took from you.
Seth- One more year, keep playing ball- fisch!! You know you wanted her. Peace Rich- It's time to be out pretty boy. Stop struggling with x-c cause you lose anyway. Now you have no choice but to stop sweatin her.
Dave- Four long years we've been there. It's not easy to say goodbye because we were so close, but anyway, I'm out like bacon.
Mr. Newell- See ya later noodles.
Thanks to Gould for all of its challenges it gave me. Athletically, I conquered them all, but academically, well that was a different story.
I'm going home peace, and I'm out like cheese.

CHRISTIAN F. RIOUX

Walter, you know what your quote is. P.S. You don't jump out of an airplane without a parachute genius! Work with me here, what do you want to do?
Brian, may the Mozart sound eternal.
Angie, keep working on that backhand.
Sam, Words are hard to come by, but???
Fraser, Keep your eye on the melon . . . Keep your eye on the melon.
Slim, You can too son.
Justin And Melinda, I wish I knew what to say to somebody who has been there for so much. I send my most sincere thanks, and my best wishes to both of you. If you ever need anything, you can count on me.
Asako, "I know you want to give me that sweater."; The Field House and Mozart; shopping trips; Aishitedu; weekends at Mel's; "It was a stop sign, but that's O.K. It is impossible to mention all the memories we have shared, but they will always remain somewhere in my heart. Thank you for everything. I am glad that people get the chance to share so much with one another.
Mom and Dad, I'm just as surprised as you are that I made it. I know it may not always seem like it, but I appreciate what you have done for me more than you will ever know. Thank You.

ASAKO OKADA

Mel&Justin-I was glad that I was asleep in the back seat. Drive safely.
Sam-Despite what I say, you have friends and I'm the best one.
Angi- Please keep up your efforts and become more attractive, but don't forget your pretty smile.
Walter- I had a great time with you, but not enough to come back. Good luck with finding a princess.
Toby- I know that it's not your third leg and my legs are only two.
Christian- I love you when you smile at me, hold me tight, reproach me, and even when you hurt me, but I love you most when you are you. Thank you for everything and I'll treasure all the memories that we made and we'll make after this. Kokorokara Aishiteimasu.
PaPa- I'm glad you sent me here because now I love you more.
MaMa- I want to be a Mother just like you because you are the best cook!
Kyoko- I hope that you can find something that you can treasure forever.
Grandparents- Thank you fur supporting me and loving me.
The Cloughs- Thank you for sharing a wonderful time with me.
Ms. Whalen- I'll never say "I can't"
Ms. Lee-I'll try to be on time next time.
Mrs. Johnson- I'll miss your chocolate chip cookies and pretty daughters.
Mr. Gardiner- Thank you for the great stories.
Mrs. Dorhman- Please call me anytime for a baby-sitter.
Mr. Cousins- Is American food good?

SAM DECKER

Nothing is so good it lasts eternally. Perfect situations must go wrong, but this has never prevented me from wanting far too much, for far too long. Looking back I could have done it differently, won a few more moments, who can tell.

Mel- You have been the absolute best friend a person can possibly have. Thank you and I love you B.F.

Anji - Thank you for being there when I needed a compassionate ear. You listened to me when no one else would. I wish you the best of luck in your remaining years at Gould.

Chris- What can I say? You have made me laugh more times than anyone else. Anytime you get a craving for custard, our door is open.

Dr. O. - Well, I'm the last of the nuns to leave! Just wait, I'll be the first female monk with hair!

Mrs. Johnson- Can you believe it's been four years? You are the best advisor a person could get. Thanks for being there.

Suzanne- Remember what Daddy told us. They are only jealous. I love you.

Asako - Thank you for being my friend throughout it all. I will never forget you.

Daddy- Thank you for your support and understanding. I am the person that I am today because you went against your better judgment at times and gave me my freedom. I love you more than anything else in the world.

Roberta- Thanks for everything. I love you.

MELINDA MACLEAN JOHANSEN "MEL, MELLIE"

"Some of it's magic, some of it's tragic but I had a good life all the way." - Jimmy Buffet

Mom, Kara, Justin, Grammie, Grampy, Dad, Gram - Families are there to love you unconditionally, thanks for always being there and for your support. I love you.

"Thank God for the wind beneath my wings." - Bette Midler

Mom, you've always given me room to make my own decisions, but if I ever fell down you were always there to pick me up. You're the best friend a daughter could have. I love you!

Kara, a memory stays forever in your mind, a picture sometimes fades, but our friendship is everlasting, thought that will never slip away.

Angi- I'll miss you and I love ya!

Sam, Asako, Anji, Chris Justin - "When you are the best of friends sharing all that you discover, when these moments have passed, will that friendship last? Who can say there's a way? Oh, I hope, I hope it never ends, 'cause we're the best of friends." Fox and the Hound

Justin - "Someday when Spring is here, We'll find our love anew, and wedding bells will ring,
Someday when my dreams come true." - Sleeping Beauty

- And honey . . . if you ask me, I'll say yes. I love you!

So long, farewell, auf wiedersehen, and goodbye.

"Old age hath yet honor its toil;
death closes all; but something ere the end,
some work of noble note, may yet be done,
not unbecoming men that strove with gods.

The lights begin to twinkle from the rocks;
the long day wanes; the slow moon climbs;
the deep moans round with many voices.

Come my friends,
'tis not to late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
the sounding furrows; for my purpose holds to sail beyond the sunset, and the baths of all the western stars, until I die."
Tennyson, "Ulysses"

My old life's
a decent memory,
too soon
become a recent blur

with scattered dreams,
and hand shakes,
and simple smiles.

There's a land
up on the risers,
that calls
not only me.
It's been built
years ago,
built on flesh and blood
. . . forged of dreams.

And this old land
of Delco
is easily understood.
When you come of age,
and state of mind,
to it you'll travel.

But the trouble's
on the roadway,
and all the spaces
in between.
So don't loose sight of Delco,
nor your dreams.

My Gould life's
been a crafted memory,
too soon
become a bit obscure.

I'll remember
scattered things,
and hand shakes,
and times
when there were simple smiles.

Thank you my family & friends.
Have a good 4 years Brendon

SHINZO HONDE

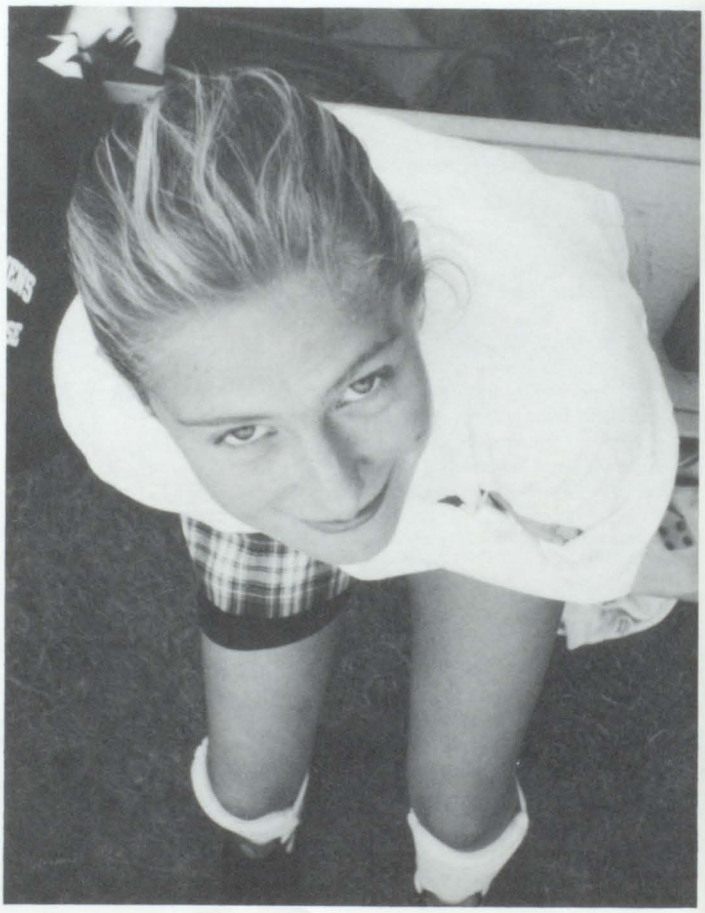
Four years passed quickly. I still remember the first day, where I met, Patrick, Greg, Eric, and Neils.
The four years while I went to Gould was one of the best times I had. I got to travel around Maine. I went to Alaska, Montana, and most of all I learned to fly. (Thanks Dad)
I like to thank all the teachers and most of all my Dad for letting me go to Gould.
Patrick, "Did you ever know that you were my hero?"
"Hey you know what really sucks, I got a 98 on my test. That's what friends are for."
Greg, "Fred, Big G, Matthews, nice legs. Oh shut up. What are you saying?"
Great 4 years "Good times and bad times" we had together, but you were always there to listen to me go off. Thanks for dealing with me even when I was a pain in the a-- . . .
Eric, "Oh don't tell me . . . . . you've got . . . . . "
(Thanks for over exaggerating and making fun of what I do)
"Harlow, whats his m=name said to what's her name so on and so for, then so on . . . . .
Neils, "Hey dude!" We're gonna be late."
Jesse, "Hi roommate."
Abi H., "Need help on your computer?"
THE BOYS, B.D. B.W. P.Y. L.G. GOOD LUCK
Chris and Amy, "Wanna go swinging with us?"
B.C., K.C., J.G., D.B., M.B. Have a great senior year
G.I., C.C., S.M., Have fun for the rest of the time at Gould

DUSTIN SYSKO

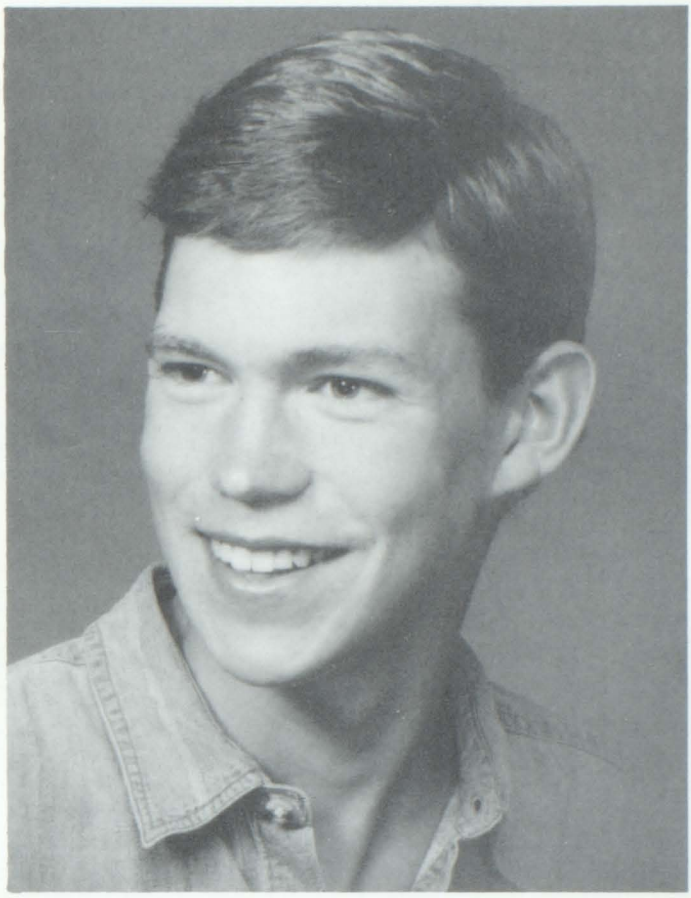
This is a small list of some quotes that I have acquired over a space of many years in school. None of them were taught in school. All of them I believe to be true. This is an incomplete list. They are not arranged in any specific order. No charges of serious injury, insanity, or death resultant of the following of any of these quotes may be placed against me, or any of those persons quoted.
Art is much less important than life, but what a poor life without it. - Robert Motherwell
The best proof of love is trust. - Joyce Brothers
Any concern too small to be turned into a prayer is too small to be made into a burden. - Corrie ten Boom
One way to prevent conversation from becoming boring is to say the wrong thing. — Frank Sheed
There are no shortcuts to any place worth going. - Beverly Sills
Standing in the middle of the road is dangerous; you get knocked down by traffic from both sides. - Margret Thatcher
It is important for our friends to believe that we are reservedly frank with them, and important to our friendship that we are not. - Mignon McLaughlin
Live so that your friends can defend you, but never have to. - Arnold H. Glasow
Have a weird day. Normal days are boring. - Abigail Wiggin
Oh, by the way, thanks Mom and Dad! Also, thanks to my always best friend Jason Faser.

ABBIE BAKER MCCAMMON

"I didn't do it."
"We are the roses in the garden, beauty with thorns among our leaves. To pick a rose is to ask your hands to bleed. What is the reason for having roses when your blood is shed carelessly? It must be for something more than vanity."
Thea - Thanks for being a friend, continue the nighttime ritual next year for me, I worship you too. Don't get in too much trouble.
Stefan- You better watch out for the martian, he'll get you soon enough. I hope someday you get your blow-up lamb!!! Don't get into too many fights - never change. You are a wonderful friend.
"We need all the clowns to make us smile."
Troy & Lucas- Don't make too many girls cry when I'm gone.
"In perpetuity
All throughout the universe
You and me
Past end of time and edge of earth"
Kelley - You are the best friend I could have! We make the greatest candlelight dinners!
Mom
- You've been there through it all and never given up, without you I might never have made it, I couldn't ask for anyone better.
I love you.
Thank you Dad and Fuller for your support, you gave me this chance and I will never forget it.



HALE WILLIAMS



Mom and Dad, I'm almost there. Thanks for everything.
To S & J thanks for all your support. I love you both.
To the Father Raper . . . you can get anything you want.
And you know where to look. To Ola, anytime you need a lesson in pingpong or fooseball you know where to look.
Amit, anytime you need someone to slack with, just come find me.
Brandon, Old one spoke. "Remember always be efficient so don't paddle a canoe full of water."
To Shelty I owe you a big fat lip.
If you really love something set it free; If It doesn't come back hunt it down and shoot it.

OLA MELIN

I feel like a spectator, viewing my life at Gould go by seasons are changing, hunting fragments of my memory that escaped yesterday, escaped but didn't cease to exist. I guess I'll have total recall when my class will get together at Alumni Weekend, and maybe I can bring my children and say, "Hey! This is the room that your father used to live in", or "I did some work on that old, incomplete sauna . . ."
- "Respice Post Te, Hominem Memento"
- "Look Around, And Remember That You Are Only A Man."
This is what a slave told Ceasar at his Triumphal procession callica. And this is what I am saying to myself as I leave Gould.
To my father and mother: Thank You!
To everybody else; Thank You, too!
Hale: See you later, dude. BP forever!

"Damn, what page are you on?" C.M.
"Saturday check-in? What's that?" C.M.
Mom & Dad: "I can't thank you enough for all you've done for me. Surprise, I made it."

ERIC REPPEN

When "going forth", try to remember the difference between destruction and progress. Understand what "success" is for you. If you follow these tenets and are forever after happy, then you're probably not doing it right.
-Harpo Marx, one of the most expressive characters of the twentieth century.

AMIT BHATT

We do not believe in ourselves until someone reveals that deep inside us something is valuable, worth listening to, worthy of our trust, sacred to our touch. Once we believe in ourselves we can risk curiosity, wonder, spontaneous delight or any experience that reveals the human spirit. • E.E. Cummings

The different between perseverance and obstinacy is that one comes from strong will and the others from strong won't. Henry Ward Beecher

I would rather be ashes than dust! I would rather my sparks should burn on a blaze that it should be stifled by dry-rot. I would rather be a superb meteor, every atom of me in magnificent glow, than asleep as a permanent planet. The proper function of man is to live, not to exist. I shall not waste my days to prolong them I shall use my time. Jack London

I would like to give my love out to everyone at Gould Academy. A special thanks to B.C. and J.D. Peace to all. There is no love, no other love, like hers. SEAL

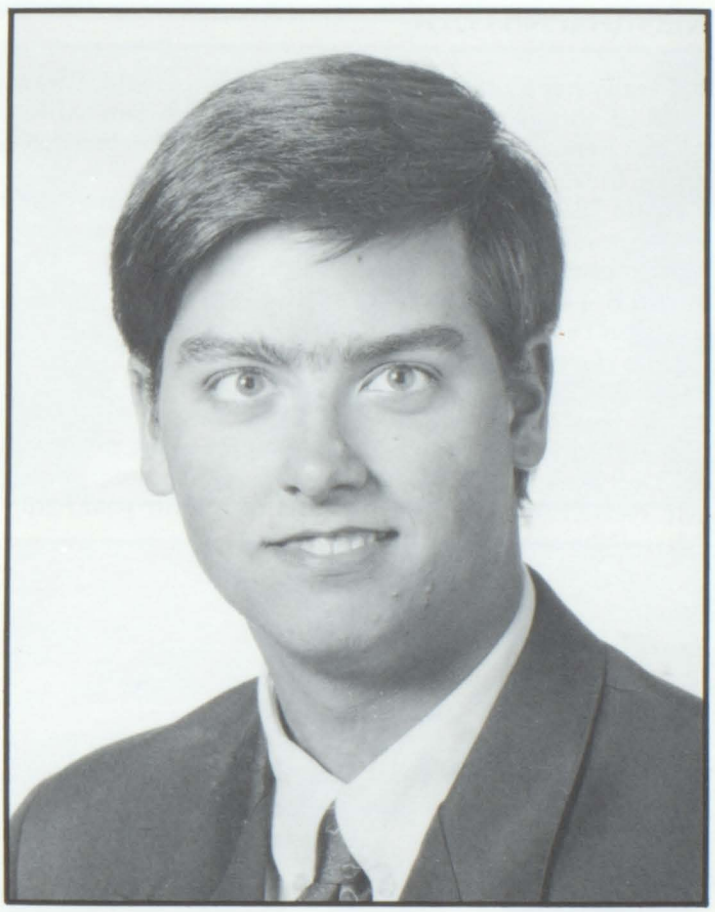
LAURA CASTELLS

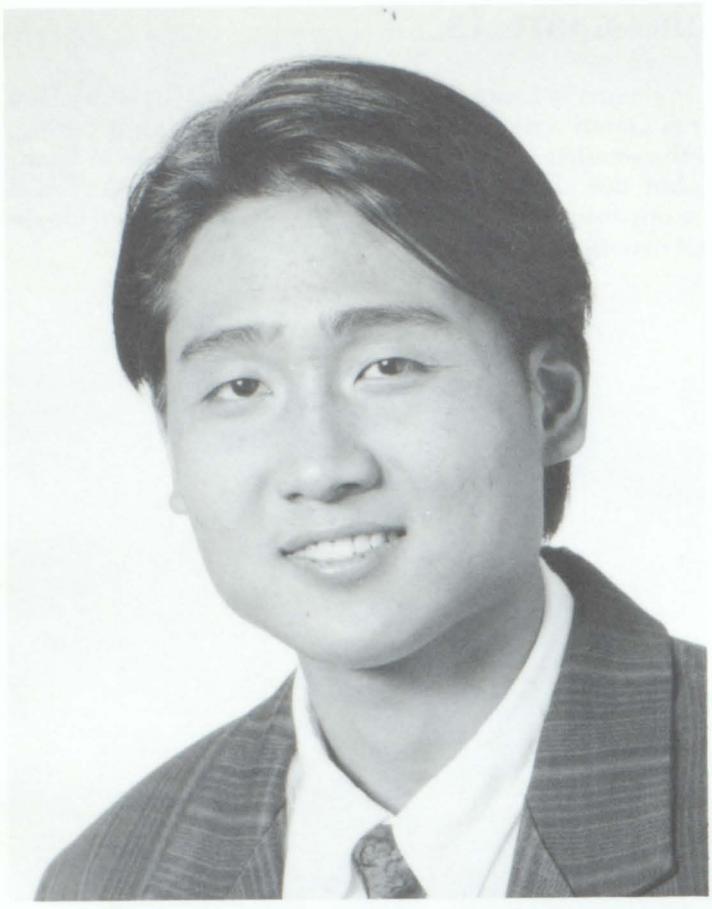
Hi! My name is Laura, and I'm from Spain. This is my first year at Gould. I like this school although I think it boring, and the weather is very cold. I would like to write in Spanish, but not all the people would understand. But I will write one thing in my language - Espana es lo mejor! (Spain is the better)

MIGUEL FERNANDEZ DE SANTOS

Escape the horrors of Gould Academy! Come to Spain, You will have a good time there! Good food (tortilla de patata, paella, cocido . . .), good girls, good hotels, good people, good beaches, many amusements, art and culture. You can't be bored in my country! The best!

COME TO SPAIN AND FORGET YOUR PAIN!





SANG-WOO PARK

"I went to the woods becasue I wished to live deliberately, to confront only the essential facts of life and see if I could not learn what I had to teach, and not, when I came to die, discover that I had not lived." -Henry David Thoreau-
"There is a train that leaves the station
Heading for your destination
But the price you pay to nowhere has increased a dollar more. Yes it has.
And if you walk you're gonna get there
Though it takes a little longer
And when you see it in the distance
You will ring your head and moan." - Led Zeppelin-
I want to thank my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dohrmann and my friends for giving me opportunities and helping me. Best luck to my brothers from the motherland.

KENICHI KAWAJI

I'm really happy that I'm graduating from Gould. I learned a lot of things at Gould and I had much fun with my friends here. I won't forget the memories and experience for a long time.
I would like to thank everyone at Gould and my family. Here are some messages for my friends and teachers:
Christopher M: "What do you want?!"
Justin B: Thanks for helping me in history.

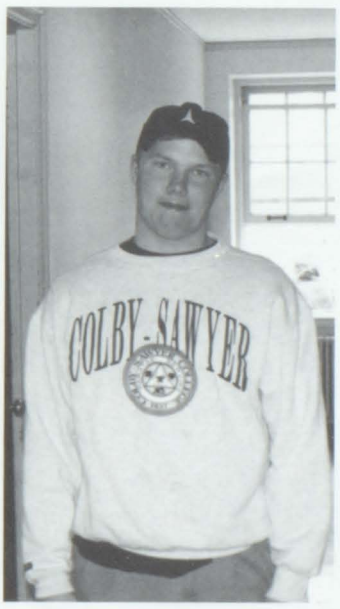
GEHRING

This year Gehring had it's usual shares of ups and downs with the mice and other little - and not so little - visitors in the night. All in all, the months went by smoothly with the new faculty on the 3rd floor, Ms. Whalen. She came into this year with her optimism and curtains which both made a difference. Both floors kept up their traditions - the third was quite and neat, the second had nightly tornadoes whipping through. The facelifted lounges: - and the addition of the kitchen created lots of excitement and bags of popcorn. It was a good year and we wish all the Seniors good luck!

Holden

Holden had an interesting year which was summed up by Eric Harlow, head proctor '94. "Holden. More than just a dorm. Holden is an attitude, a state of mind. Holden has many synonyms, such as love and brotherhood, but the word that best typifies life in our great home is camraderie. We are all brothers in Holden. We laugh, love and cry together. With such father figures as Mr. Sanborn, Mr. Sigel, Hutch and Axl Rose. This year was one to remember."



HOLDEN

Davidson

We can truly say there is nothing on campus quite like Davidson. If you forget and are longing for those memories of old, just remember the smell, noise, and gentle bed rolls by Mr. Penczer. Try and recall the pranks and fun provided by our extended family and you'll agree, Davidson is unique.

Day Students

This year could have more Day Students than anytime since Gould became a private school. With all these people we had a diverse and interesting blend also a major battle for good parking spaces. It was done in good friendliness and the spirit of good humor. This year's crop of Day Students also unofficially passed a resolution adopting the library as a lounge, which consequently aged Ms. Carlson ten years - she's now 29, ha! A perfect example of Day Student's was our fearless proctor, Phoebe. She helped keep us in line and the library quiet. We had fun, look forward to next year and will carry on our mascot - the Day Fish.

Everyone who watched was amazed of how far this third string team came and what a great sight to see them gel for one last momentous occasion as we showed off our talent and sportsmanship. Mr. Sigel was the coach for this season and did a great job despite the fact that it was his first time as coach. Johnathan Falby led the team as captain and Eric Milner received the Coaches' Award at the end of the season. They finished the season with a record of 4-4-1.

Clockwise: Beau Falby, Coach Sigel, Amos, "The Team"

J.V. Soccer

The men's JV soccer team had a successful season with a record of 12-2-1. This was the third year the team has won the MAISAD tournament. Despite the little details such as forgetting to pick up uniforms, coming to practice late, and getting down on one another, we managed to hold it together through a double sudden death overtime and into a penalty shoot out to win the tournament against C.V.A.. Thank you Seth Dodge and "Hutch".

Varsity Soccer

To quote New England Patriots' head coach Bill Parcels "You are what you are". Unfortunately the Men's Varsity soccer team was 2-8-2. It was a hard pill to swallow and not making the MAISAD tournament did not make it any easier. The rough season was not due to a lack of effort though. The team just didn't seem to gel as it had in past years, mostly because there were only two returning varsity starters from last year. The team should remember: "In the dirt", "Face down", and "Walking through the valley of death". Good luck next year. AIR RAID!!

Cross-Country

The cross-country running team's year came down to a hard fight at the MAISAD Championships. Gould, a dominant force in MAISAD competition, was going after a third consecutive championship. Yet in a bitter dog-fight with rival NYA, Gould would lose by one point at Yarmouth and surrender its crown. This season however brought relief to coaches Pooley and Davis. As they watched the Cote-Edwards Era end, they saw future stardom in Nationals qualifier and MAISAD champion Ben Kamilelich and Girls' State Champion Chris Shaner. Others that followed in the paths of "Kamy", Cote, and Edwards were Jason Gazilli and Qienten. Cote and fast Eddy will never again be seen in the Blue and Gold and behind them they have left large shoes to fill. Watch out for next year, NYA!

Varsity Field Hockey

Although the field hockey team suffered many injuries and lack of experience this season. By the end, we pulled together for a spectacular MAISAD tournament. Our starting goalie, Tamara Bucknell-Pogue, and captain, Gwen Stockwell were both injured early and were out for the rest of the season. Kate Graham filled in for goalie and did and outstanding job for her first time in the position. Captain Abi Howe and Beca Whiteley both earned All-Star honors by the season's end. Beca also won the Sportsmanship Award, while Shelley MacQuinn was the team's most improved player. Next year's team should look forward to more experience and good leadership from captains Marie Lowell and Marlis Hamory.

Varsity Soccer

The Gould Field Hockey program is beginning to receive more attention this year than previous seasons. Many wayward soccer players are finding their way to the field behind the Headmaster's House and discovering a sport that is challenging and fun.

This year we had a young team with nine new Freshman and Sophomores. As a team we were led by Seniors Becca Whitely and Captain Abi Howe. This seasons goes down as one plagued with injuries especially noted Captain Gwen Stockwell and starting goalie Tamara Bucknell-Pogue. Throughout it all we managed to end the season with the team in tack and look forward to a stronger season next year.

JV Soccer

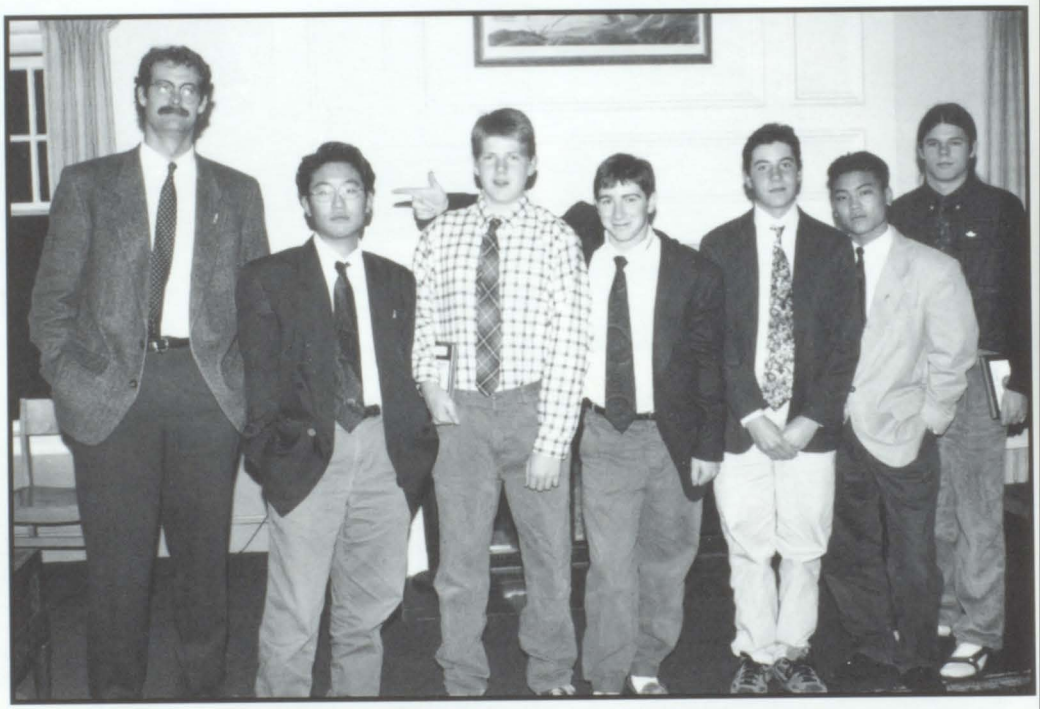
Although our record may not be one to tout over past seasons, 0-9, we played hard and appreciated Ms. Morrison's enthusiasm. The first game of the season foreshadowed a season of a bumpy ride with Cathy Morgan leaving with a concussion. The Waynefleet game is another moment in our shared history when the team stuck it out through a 7-0 defeat. Niccole Welshimer led the team as captain and goalie and Rachel Slack captured the coaches award for her good nature and dedication.

Varsity Golf

The golfer's were led this Fall by captain Walter Hawkes. Although the team did not fair well in the win-loss department, skills improved and four of the seven team members return next. year.

Few prep schools have a golf team and we found ourselves head to head with an outstanding Bridgeton team for six outings. We weren't shut down however, as we split once with North Yarmouth Academy.

In addition to Hawkes, who played the number one spot all season, the team included Kevin Ege, Jeffery Ha, Josh Paquette, Ian Cleary, Chris Rioux, and Joon-Bum Park. Kevin was awarded Most Improved Golfer and Walter captured the Sportsmanship award.



Cross Country Skiing

Ballad of a Plaid Race Day

Totally enjoyable every minute, it was a line of raspberry plaid disappearing into the woods. Da, da, da, da (1.8 per sec.) toe-down, tendu, melt (fondue) the knees, quick feet, it's a blast. Degage at 2:45/kilometer - hotter'n a hen hauling wood! Cross-Country and the plaid ballet: 1-2-3-6, 1-3-4-9 Prep School Champions; third position, seventh position Junior Nationals; 1-5-7 New England's - some dance!

All together now, up we go - and everybody did. The club runs together & forms friendships over all those miles on pavement, trail and snow. You're part of the team as long as you're water and willing to flow, beneath a hill, inside your bones, break out and rush free when the number goes on, or when any number is run or sung, allegro and andante-presented twice weekly (hill days) by The Nordic Endorphin Singers.

Da! da! da! - 1.8 each quickening second. What more could you need to know. Well, I'm not sure if I understand Mr. Taylor's waxing (or if he does), so I just smile and accept it. Hairies and silicone, a dash of extra blue, Ski-go pink's the magic wax for you. Come again, we begin again in June!

Eastern Team A

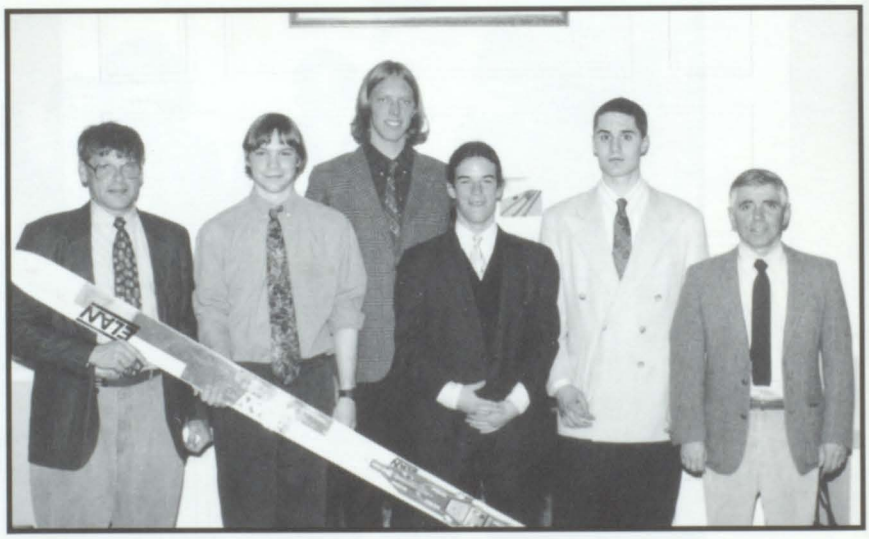
With the extreme cold conditions thi year, Sunday River was able to provide skiing as early as October 11. With three new coaches, plus lots of intensive dryland and weight training, the A Team was able to build a strong support base. In the MAISADS standings, the men's team took first place to win by one point over Kent's Hill at the MAISADS Championships, which were held at Sugarloaf. The women took fourth overall at the Championships, with Abi Howe placing second in both the slalom and the giant slalom. Close behind was Anna Marancik, placing seventh in the slalom, and eighth in the giant slalom. She also got this year's women's World Cup Title. Kyle Power led the team in '94 with enough top finishes to claim the top spot in the MAISADS and the World Cup Title. At the New England Preps, held at our own home this year, the men placed second, just eleven points behind Holderness. Eric Harlow placed second in the slalom, and fifth in the G.S., while Kyle Power and Bill Clifford were in the top seventeen both times. This year Kyle Power, Eric Harlow, and Leah Muliero were awarded spots on the New England Team. Overall we had a great season. Good coaching and a great attitude lead us to improve one hundred percent. Good job guys!

Gould Team B

The B team had a great season. It included both the men and women winning the MAISADS Championships. Anna Marancik and Chip Liscombe came in first in the individual standings, with everyone else not far behind. For women Marlis Hamory came in eighth and Amy Swinton twelfth. For men Ian Bissonette stood with fifth, Taylor Philips eighth and Eric Milner fifteenth. This all happened with lots of help from rookie coach Dana Bresleau.

Ski Jumping

We started with a camp at Lake Placid, New York. This always gets the lads excited as it is the first sure snow of the season. As for locally, we got to jump at Swan's Corner in early January, about a month later than we would have liked. Eighteen different skiers jumped this season, and the combined total of jumps as close to 1000. At the Prep School Championships, which were held at Gould this year, we placed third, just 2 place points behind Holderness. Our Prep School team was led by Nate Wight, Jeremiah Donaldson, Jesse Peck, Bean Falby, and Greg Matthews. Thanks to Paul McGuire for his support. The most-improved Award went to Jeremiah Donaldson, and Greg Matthews gained the Sportsmanship Award.

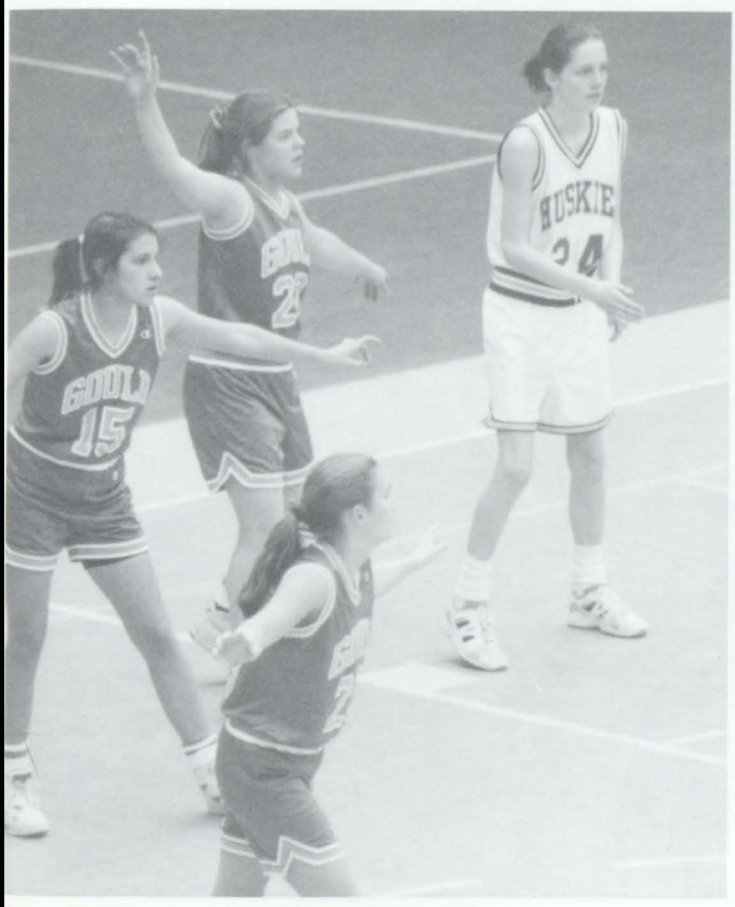


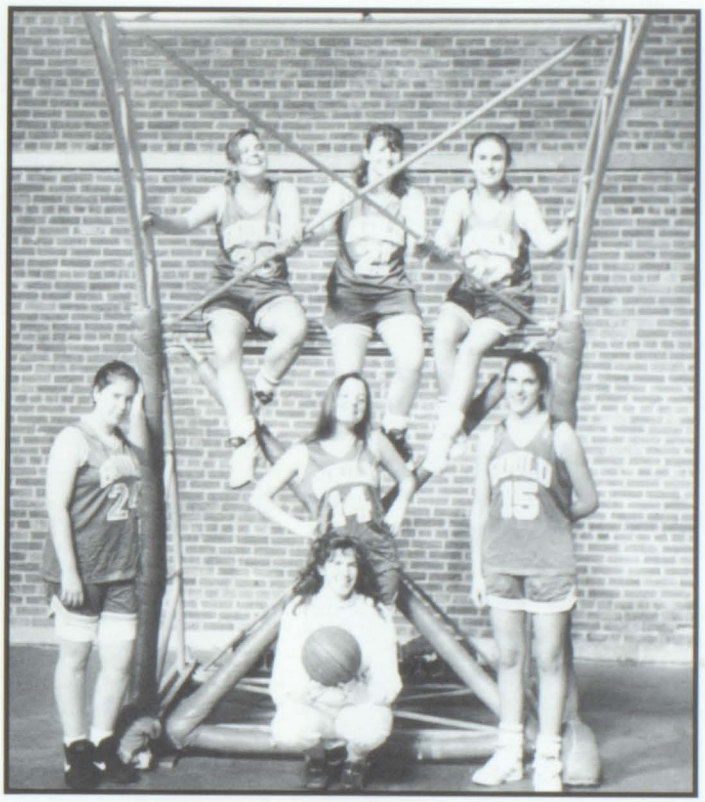
Woman's Varsity Basketball

We had our ups and downs this season, but there was always motivation and team spirit. There were many new faces on the court, most of them also new to the sport. Our big moment was our win against North Haven.

Captain Melinda Johansen and Maggie Buckingham led the team with 323 points combined. Anji Grajewski, Nicole Welsheimer, and Nedda Campbell maintained a strong defense which an integral part in every game this year. Sarah Dodge, Cathy Morgan, and Jenn Crowder were new to the team and an important support cast. We'd like to say thank-you to our coach, Ms. Morrison, and our manager, Meredith Mason.

The awards this year went to Anji Grajewski for most improved and Melinda Johansen for sportsmanship.

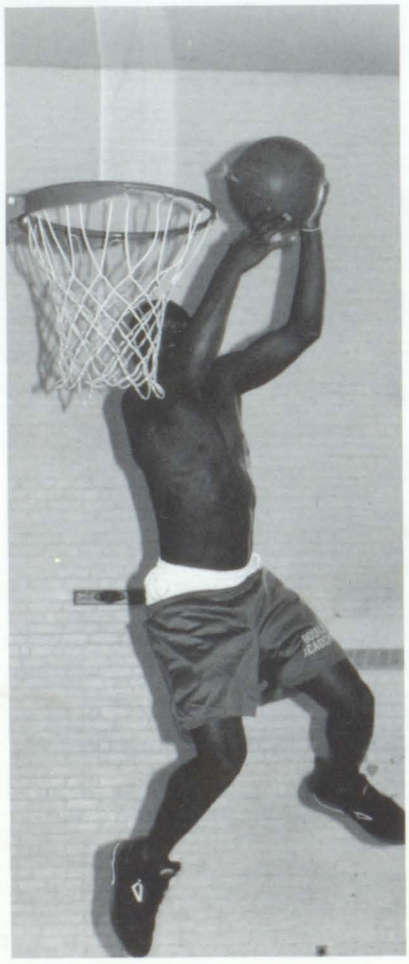




From the left: in the back row, Nicole Welsheimer, Melinda Johansen, and Maggie Buckingham; standing, Jenn Crowder, Sarah Dodge, and Anji Grajewski; Ms. Morrison holds the basketball.

MEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

This years Men's Varsity Basketball Team was overall the most talented team that Gould has had in recent years. Although Gould did not make it to the tournament, Gould was by far the best team in SPA, holding their record at 6-1, losing only to Buckfield by three. The highlight of this season was going to Rangely, which was ranked to be number two in '94, and beating them in overtime. Gould's team was very energetic and filled with many talented, versatile players. In scoring they were led by team captain Korrie McIntyre, who averaged 22 points per game, and Josh Otten, was 17 points per game. The starters, including Korrie and Josh, were Ian Cleary, Seth Dodge, and David Ortiz. Other players who had high games were Ian Cleary, with 16 points, and David Ortiz, with 20 points. The Varsity had help from swingmen Lanny Poopola, Shawn Morales, and Toji Perlman, who provided some energy as well as some offensive punch. There was also a sixth man, Rich Davis, who provided tenacious defense at critical moments. This years awards go to Lanny Poopola with the Most Improved, and Ian Cleary with the Sportsmanship Award.



J.V. Basketball

This year's J.V. basketball team was a team with a great deal of talent and depth. The team had a 4-1 record under coach Alexy Loshkarev. The "run and gun" offense that coach Loshkarev used helped Gould defeat Kent's Hill by fifty-six points, their largest margin of victory. Although Gould scored eighty-three points total in that game, their highest scoring game was against Eastgate Academy, with ninety-four points. Consequently, Eastgate was the only team that beat Gould, the loss was suffered at Eastgate earlier in the season, 69 to 65. This team had a large quantity of diversity and togetherness this year. With all the starters hopefully going to the varsity next season, Gould should have some fine teams in the future.

Though the team was lead in scoring by JR Covington, rebounding by Lanny Popoola, and assists by Shawn Morales, it was a balanced attack. On the defensive end the team was hard nosed and tenacious and always ready to block a shot. The team was also filled with sportsmen who communicated well with the opposing teams. Gould's bench was filled with great talent, that will bring the team another great record next year. Finally, the team would like to express their gratitude and appreciation for coach Loshkarev. We couldn't have done what we did if it weren't for your confidence in us. We'll miss you.

-Toji Pearlman, JR Covington, Shawn Morales, and Jarrod Crockett

Cycling

Cold, snow, wet, wind, turbo training! Early season Maine cycling is always a challenge but this year was especially hard for us. We had 14 riders with a very wide range of experience and physical preparation within the group. Much of what we uniform tailored to the individual while we are also teaching group riding skills.

Bean Falby was 6th overall in the A Division of the MSSCC Cycling League. Peter Cline was 3rd in the B Division. Keavy Cook was 2nd for the women even though she beat the 1st place riders in the B Championship race. The A Championship found us in 3rd place out of seven teams.

We had fun and I hope that some of the lessons will be taken to heart for life.

Varsity Baseball

Captain: Josh Otten
Record: 5-2
Sportsmanship Award: Eric Harlow
Most Improved Player: Ian Paquette
Captain for 1995: Jason Fraser
George Bowhay Award: Josh Otten

It was another fine year for baseball at Gould. Enthusiasm was high and the work ethic outstanding. Our team was led by Josh Otten's 3-0 won-lost record with a 1.84 E.R.A., Josh also batted .529. Eric Harlow led all hitters with a .563 batting average. His hitting included 3 doubles, 2 homeruns, and 11 RBI's. We graduate 8 Seniors from our team of 21 players but the future looks bright with enthusiastic, talented Freshman, Sophomores, and Juniors ready to carry on the winning tradition at Gould. The team appreciates all the help it has received.

Women's Tennis

This year's team had only three returning players. Our 2-6 record as a team does not show our individual efforts. Senior Jess LeMay played #1 singles and ended the season with a 5-3 record. Jess qualified for the MAISAD tournament and made it to the finals gaining a number 2 singles title. Great performances were made by Junior Mel Johansen, Carmen Torres, Marie Lowell, Anji Grajewski, Chris Shaner, Jen Curly, and Molley Maloney. Despite the inexperience, we all played well and kept high spirits. The Dynamic duo would like to thank Mrs. Johnson for putting up with the Fudgesicles and Mountain Dew. Always remember, "It's in, it's out, it's over."

Men's Varsity Tennis

If you counted up all the times the men's varsity team defeated itself, the team might have had an undefeated season. The record at the season's end stood at 5-6. This season's squad collectively possessed a great quantity of skill and talent. At the same time, this youthful group made a habit of giving away points, sets, and matches to less skilled players due to inconsistency and competitive breakdowns. Most of this year's team will return next season and promise to be a force if they play with more self-discipline and fewer forced errors. This year's lineup included singles players Mark Harries, Jason Gazzilli, Amit Bhatt, and Steve Brand. The doubles team of Chris Shearer and Lucas St. Clair played together most of the season while team members Kwok Wong, John Batten, Sang Woo Park, and John Strazza all saw action in various combinations at second doubles.

Mens J.V. Tennis

Men's J.V. Tennis needs no trophy for its undefeated season. The strong and mighty team was satisfied with knowing that McDonalds was there to greet the victorious players with greasy food and a source of entertainment. The J.V. Tennis team faced many opponents, some strong, some weak, but always were the players patient and displaying of true sportsmanship.

Women's Lacrosse

Sportsmanship Award: Po Yates
MIP: Nicole Welishmer
Next Year's Captain: Brittany Cooper, Jill Huntsberger, Kendra Hutchinson

This year the team had a record of 10-2, Gould's only losses came from Wayneflete, #1, and Yarmouth, #2. The team was lead by Senior Captain, Po Yates, who had 91 points for the season. The team was young, only having 2 returning starters from the 1993 Championship Team. As a whole, we improved a great deal. By the end of the season we were a power on the field. This year we had four players go to the ALL Star game - Po Yates, Leah Muliero, Maggie Buckingham, Nicole Welishmer.

MEN'S VARSITY LACROSSE

Like Noah searching for a piece of dr ground, the Men's Varsity Lacrosse Team spotted the dove with the olive branch on April 26th, and they left the fieldhouse ark for the frozen earth to begin play on a real lacrosse field. In spite of winter conditions and early season set backs, the team's positive outlook provided a strong foundation in order to overcome the obstacles and the injuries that stood in the way and made the season one of fun and improvement.

Three year starter and leading scorer Captain Kyle Power '94 lead the attack with help from Josh Paquette '94, Eric Ritter '95, and Doug Delise '95. The midfield group was anchored by Chris Rioux '94, Sasha Rearick '95, Daryl Seitzer '94, Korrie McIntyre '94, Mike Rackliffe '95, Matt Thurston '94, Nate Wight '95, Brian Burgess '94, Hale Williams '94, and Fred Burk '94. The defense was lead by Rich Davis '94, Toby Buckingham '95, Andrew Smith '95, Walter Hawkes '95, Brendan Cooley '95, Ola Melin '94, and goalie Brandon Fulford '94.

With nine juniors returning for the '95 season, the building year may be over, and hopes are running high for improvement and tournament play next year.

MEN'S J.V. LACROSSE

The men's J.V. lacrosse team split their season this year with a six and six record. With eight one point games and two overtime ones, we were never out of contention. Eric Renna did a great job stepping into the goal after starting goalie Zack Leck went on the injured list. Our defense was headed by returning players Greg Renna and Go Ishii. The offense was lead by Alistair Parker and Chris Cardello at the midfield and Chris Mcnevitch and Eric Rackliffe at the attack. The coach's award was given to the most improved player, Taylor Phililips.

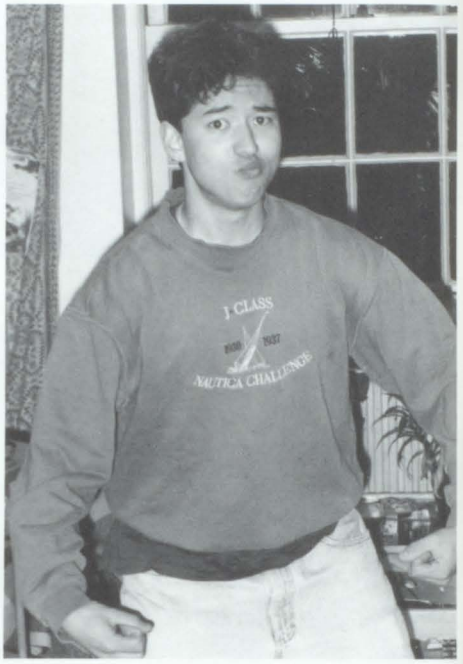
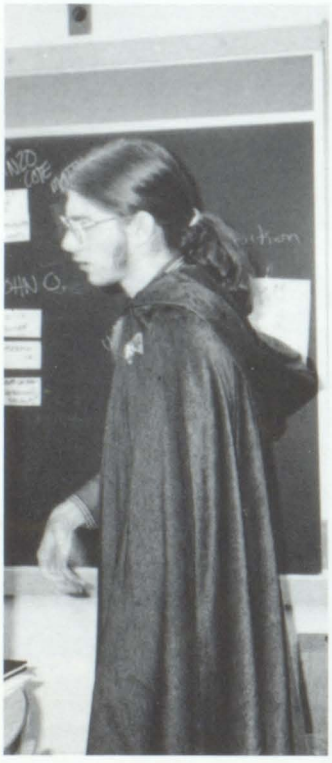
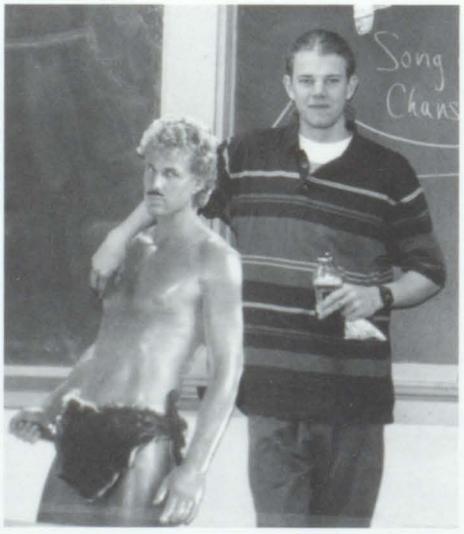
Yearbook

It must be over because the Yearbook is in your hands. Lack of black pens, stuck pictures together because of waterbottles in briefcases, late write-ups, a freckled photographer losing a roll, and general cluelessness of how to produce a Yearbook made for an interesting year. But, with the guiding spirits of "Varsity Basketball Fish Man" Darby, "I'm not going to write that" Abby, "Sure, I can do that" Johnny O, 2 Hippie photographers who bribed their way into the program using Mr. Davis solidarity sympathy and the infamous Cote line, "I need the extra time to train" and Matthews "I can't do JV Lax 4 years in a row!", Pilot Honde who captained that crew when he wasn't flying for the Yearbook, "Don't worry Ms. Whalen" Randy, and Ms. "Has anyone seen my keys, did you already give me that to develop?" Whalen we finished it! Thanks to all who helped out with pictures, especially Sasha, write-ups and especially the crew above. You did a great job of keeping me calm. Hope you enjoy it!







Reachout

Dr. Ouwinga's organization is a very good one because it is a group which does good and provides a link between the Gould community and the outside world. Dr. Ouwinga and his Reachout students try to make contributions to those less fortunate than most; they raise funds for various projects such as the Third World Children program. Another major activity is writing letters for Amnesty International.

Big Sister/ Little Sister

The Big Sister/Little Sister program is designed to welcome the 9th grade girls into the Gould community by having a Big Sister show them the way. Returning juniors volunteer to be a Big Sister and are matched with an entering freshman over the summer. The Big Sisters are encouraged to contact their Little Sister during the summer and answer their questions about Gould. As school began, the Big Sisters looked out for their Little Sisters. Swimming at the Bethel Inn and bowling were activities in which all the Sisters participated during the year. We hope to do more as a group next year.

Ski Patrol

Ski Patrol had a rough start this year. If we weren't skiing into ditches, we were skiing into TADS and HADS (tower and hydrant awareness devices). Soon after that, we decided that we had to be more creative with our time, so we quickly learned how to build snow fences quickly and efficiently. As a result of skiing into these permanent structures, we also learned how to backboard people in any conditions.

Rug Rats

Rug Rats had an excellent season this year, with only a few minor mishaps. The size of the instructor group was perfectly matched to the number of kids that we had, with two to three instructors per group. This number made for a great teaching atmosphere, and many children walked away with a better understanding of the concepts of skiing, the others who already had that knowledge sometimes ended up teaching us a few things. All in all, it was a great time. And as usual, Mr. Sanborn was there, one step behind us, keeping every moment exciting, thanks Mr. Sanborn. This years Eric Bennet award went to Jason Gazzilli.

Blue Key

School ambassador, confident, leader, friend, marketer, are only a few ways to describe the Blue Key tourguides. Belonging to Blue Key involved more than showing up to the Admissions office a few times a month (ok, a few times a week) to walk around campus for forty minutes. Being a tourguide required you to be positive, friendly, on your toes for those tough questions, a good listener as you decided what information was important for the family to leave with, articulate as you described your own experiences at Gould, patient as you listened to parents talk about their student. Some students faced prospective students this year who clearly did not want to be on tour, others got lost in conversations in the Art Cottage and computer room as they the marathon tour of one hour, fifteen minutes! Many of you saw friends here touring on campus. You put up with people that you did not know staying the night in your room and visiting classes with you, while trying to make them feel at home. Hours of poster sticking and licking, and those mailings done thanks to you all. The tourguide and tour are critical components in a family's decision to attend Gould. Thank you for your hard work . . . next year I promise a picnic that won't get rained out!

Gold Key

Gold Key is a volunteer service group that works with Alumni and Development Office. Gold Key members play a vital role during Alumni Weekend with everything from set-up to clean-up. They wait on tables, help run events, take tickets and run messages. They volunteer their time during the rest of the year to help with the Parents' Auction in the fall as wait persons and models, they wait tables for Trustee dinners, write holiday cards to Development Office volunteers, participate in the student phonathon and help with other alumni projects as they arise.

This year a breaking 50+ students have been involved with Gold Key. They have been an active, reliable group and a pleasure to work with. Many of our large events this year would not have been possible without them.

Class Reps

This year, as always, the Class Reps had their hands full. First, they had to plan the election of the new Class Reps. To do this, some classes wanted to have a class trip to get the class together. However, with only one representative for each class, this was impossible. Thus, the elections did occur, although the trips did not, and everyone was happy. The next big piece of business that these brave souls had to grapple with was Winter Carnival. After many hours of planning (with the help of the proctors), and many hours of hard work, it was done. Once again everybody was happy, for it had been one of the best Winter Carnivals in the history of human-kind. After this miraculous event the planning for "The End" started. For those of you who have forgotten, or don't know, this is the big end of the year dance/party. This event, now in it's third year, is always a big hit. At the time that his is being written, it has yet to happen, but we are sure that it will be (was?) a smash. Overall, this year's crop of Class Reps was truly AMAZING. This year's line-up was: William Clifford, Josh Otten, and Fred Burk (Seniors); Robert Blake, Stephan Foord, and Keavy Cook (Juniors); Darby Hickey, and Bonnie Crocker (Sophomores); Amos Hausman-Rogers, Shelley McQuinn, and Alice Astasrita (Freshmen).

Proctors

Proctors are vital at Gould; they provide real student leadership, by example and by action. There year begins with Mr. Baker before school starts. By the end of the year the proctors have given many hours of their time working with the students in their dormitories and with other proctor projects. The proctors are elected by the whole school community. They make a difference. The proctors this year were John Oprendek, Jonothan Edwards, Kwok Wong, Gregory Matthews, Patrick Cote, Nicole Welshimer, Shinzo Honde, Eric Harlow, Rebecca Whitely, Abi Howe, and Pheobe Hausman-Rogers.

Alliance Francaise

During our monthly meetings chez Madame, we eat desserts, speak French, listen to and sing along with French songs. Sometimes we watch French videos.

In April we go to Quebec City for four days where, after sightseeing, we practice our French on waiters and shopkeepers. C'est chouette!

NHS

This year the NHS rejuvenated the spirit for which it was founded. After years of inactivity the Gould Chapter became active in the community and school events. We helped the Telstar Honor Society with the annual Thanksgiving dinner for the Senior Citizens of the community, had regular luncheon meetings, and helped organize the elections for new inductees. Gregg Matthews, Ben Kamilevich, Tamara Bucknell - Pouge, Chris Shaner, Jill Huntsberger, Bonnie Crocker, Annelise Bass, and Darby Hickey were presented to the school as the new inductees. We hope these new members and the existing ones will continue to bring the spirit of NHS to broader communities.

Josh Otten, Becca Whitley, Pat Cote, Gwen Stockwell, Phoebe Hausmen-Rogers, Ian Cleary, Coory Coogan, Keavy Cook, Nancy Morgan, Mr. Sanborn.

Outing Club

Woodworking

The woodworking activity in the Fall allowed women and men to build interesting items of furniture for home and dorm after the mandatory "Shaker" stool had been made using only hand tools. Since some participants are always veterans, a full range of power tools came into play. The Spring project was different. After some practice in the shop (also waiting for the snow to melt a team of 6 undertook the restoration of the wooden sloop "Shadowhawk". All the participants have improved their range of skills.

If ever there was a group with an adventurous spirit this was it.

Chorus

The chorus had an outstanding year with 52 students enrolled from a huge cross-section of the community. We started off the year with an appearance at Parents' weekend. Then the whole school was wowed by the great performance at "Yule Fest". We turned our attention to one short classical concert where we were accompanied by a professional string ensemble. On the last night of the year we again amazed the world with our dazzling array of talent. Lots of soloists and fun groups made for an unforgettable "Evening with Richard Rogers"

Jazz Band

Twelve cool dudes joined together for some fun with music from the forties, fifties and sixties. It had been years since Gould had a Jazz Band and it really caused some excitement. Their version of Feliz Navidad (complete with tacky chasing lights) was the hit of Yule Fest. They wound up their season with a truly blue version of Blue Moon.

Girls' Group

This band of warbling wild women quickly became the hottest entertainment ticket in Bethel. After setting the ground work in the fall they exploded on the music scene with on campus performances and even town gatherings. This dedicated group of girls rehearsed hours each week setting in motion a tradition that we hope will last for years!

Drama

There were many changes and many new faces in Gould Academy Theater this year, including a new director and new musical director. A high percentage of 9th and 10th grade students involved in this year's productions promises a strong future for Gould Theater.

Three plays were produced this year. Lovers, a two-act dramatic comedy, was performed in the fall. Winter saw the production of Arsenic & Old Lace, a three-act comedy, and the theatrical year ended with the production of the musical You're a Good Man Charlie Brown.

TECH CREW at the scene of the accident.

POLAR BEARS

A week late in the beginning but quickly made up dips everyday for a week. Polar Bears kept strong this year with a few honorable mentions:

1) Every member of Mr. Davis' Advisee Group made it to the end.
2) 4 Year Seniors - Pat Cote, Shinzo Honde, and Phoebe
3) Lasting words of wisdom -

"IT'S NOTHING UNTIL YOU DO IT TWICE!"

DRYLAND

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International students came to Gould this year from Russia, Sweden, Mexico, Hungary, Korea, Bermuda, Canada, Japan, Nigeria, Hong Kong, and Spain. Some of our students came for a one year cultural experience, and some have decided to stay and study in the United States. Students have shared information about their cultures and customs in the dorms, classrooms, and everyday conversations. As a group we had many day trips shopping and eating at international restaurants. Next year we hope to have the students share more of their backgrounds with the entire school community.

WINTER CARNIVAL

Winter Carnival '94 was kicked off to a blazing start, on Friday night, by the wild and exciting Cross-Country Ski Race. The results were: Juniors first, Seniors second, Freshmen third, and Sophomores in a close last. This proved to be an omen for the results of the rest of the weekend. After this, a huge bonfire wa: lit, and the King and Queen (Jon Edwards and Abby Mccammon), were crowned. Meanwhile, some snowboarders (and a brave cross-country skier) launched themselves off of an excellent jump. On Saturday, after classes, the fun continued. First, was the Dog Sled Race. Once again, the Juniors won. The next thrill-packed event was the Toboggan Run Race. A third time, the Juniors were victorious! That night, the musical air band competitions was held. The Juniors walked away with the title for this one, too. On Sunday, after brunch, the amazing Spink-Rink competition was held. It was an excellently done event, and everyone agreed that Darby Hickey had far surpassed all of his predecessors in his coordinating of this amazing event. Guess who won this one? Yes, the Juniors. During the course of the weekend, there had also been an ongoing scavenger hunt. The Freshmen broke the pattern when they won this event, and the Juniors went away with last. Also happening during the course of the weekend was the snow sculpture contest. The Sophomores pulled out of their slump to win this one, with a sculpture of "Tonya On a Couch", watching the Olympics on T.V . . The Juniors took second with a "Toboggan", the Freshmen took third with a "Toilet", and the Seniors placed last with an interesting attempt at a ski-jump. When the points were tallied up, the Juniors took first, the Seniors second, the Freshmen third, and the Sophomores came in dead last.

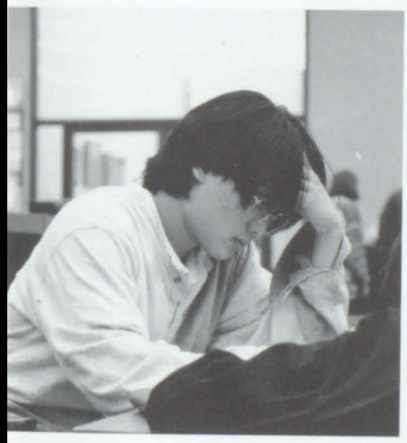
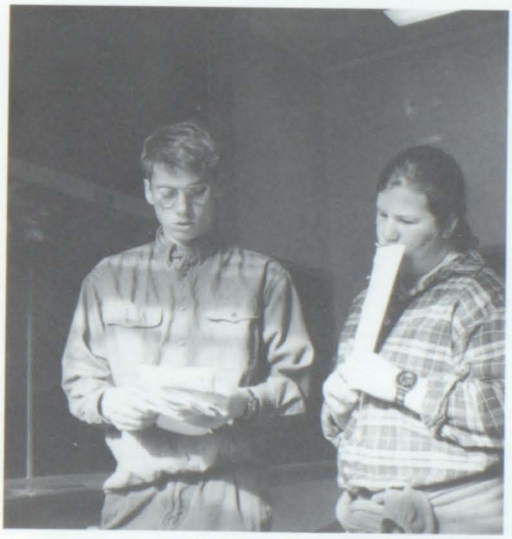
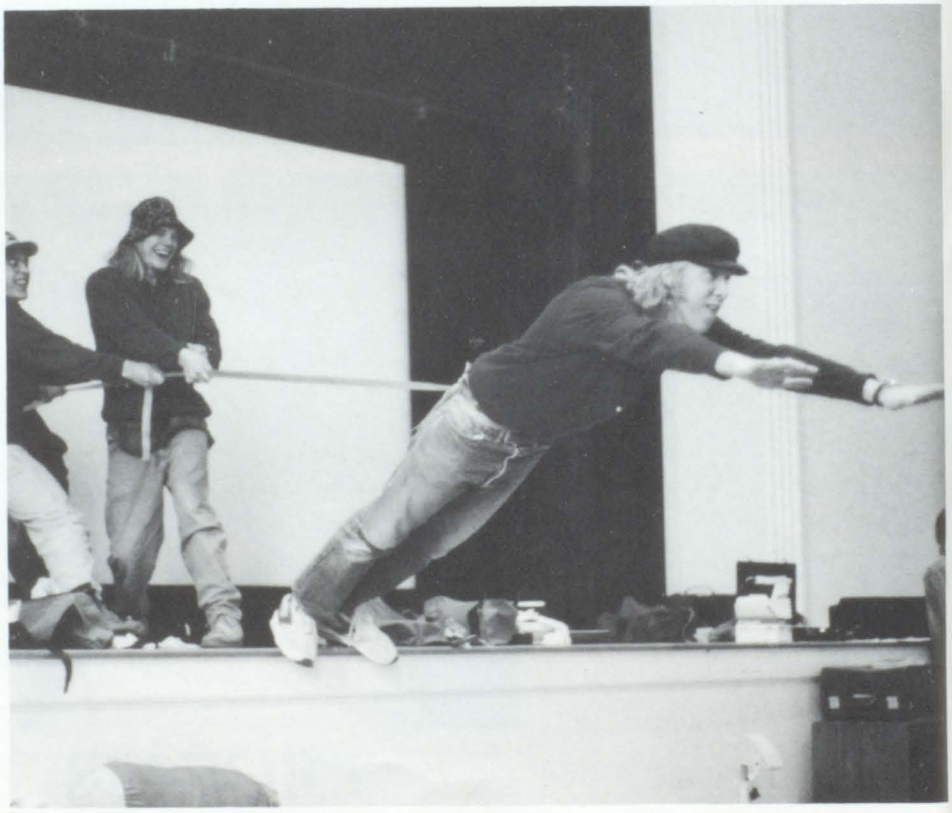
SENIORS





FOUR POINT

This year the Senior class took the initiative and designed a new Point. The first few days were spent relaxing - skiing, taking day trips around New England, and enjoying a quiet campus. After the weekend, an intensive emergency rescue course began. The seminar was run by the Wilderness Medical Associates and included hands on demonstrations and mock rescues. Even though a Point with homework was not what everyone had in mind, we learned valuable techniques and enjoyed the week.



WILDERNESS RESCUE

OUTWARD BOUND

The Junior class once took to the woods for an eight day winter camping experience. The groans of doubt began surfacing after Christmas and the anticipation and excitement grew as the day approached. Packed into the Field House with equipment and anxiety, the class soon found out their group breakdown and headed out. The amount of learning and growing which happens "out there" is never easily articulated, but remains in the memory of all participants.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

For eight years the sophomores at Gould have worked for Habitat For Humanity for their Four-Point. There are usually three or four different sites, throughout New-England at which they work. A different group, of between fourteen and sixteen students, travels to each site. In 1994 groups went to Hartford, Connecticut; Wakefield, Rhode Island; and Portland, Maine.

ENGLAND

The overcast country of England was a far cry from the sandy beaches that entertained last year's Freshman class but the lack of sun certainly did not diminish from the memorable eight days. We began the trip exhausted from a plane ride that lacked the promised Nintendo and a tour of the city with "Norma". From there the pace was non-stop - early morning breakfasts and days filled with walking around the city trying not to get hit by cars traveling in directions unfamiliar to us. Riding the Underground became easy after a few days, especially when we could follow Mr. Dohrman and red and green heads as further guides through the rush hour traffic. National Gallery, Tower of London, Westminster, MOMI, Rock Circus, Speaker's Corner, St. Paul's, Buckingham Palace, Trafalgar Square, and Covent Garden are only some of the places we visited. Exhausting, memorable, and fun are the words that come to mind as I look through these pictures. It is certainly a trip to build on!

Oh, no! What are they doing now?

Mr. Taylor's Advisee Group

There are mostly things this year we would like to have done in the busy-ness of fun. We have nonetheless been business-like and presume to the championship of dish crews. A wordless, smiling juggernaut were we, relentless wipers of tables, sprayers, stackers; and people after stopped to marvel at the blur of fingers at the steaming silverware trays. The garbage dashed to the dumpster virtually unaided.

The championship dinner was held this year at the Olde Rowley Inn. Dress was formal, in keeping with the gravity of the occasion and our group's natural habits. The featured topic of discussion was: Is it time that if you build a fence crooked enough, even when you are out you may still be in?

Mr. Taylor, Bean Falby, Ben Kemilewicz, Jessica LeMay, Aaron Lockwood, John Oprendek III, Eric Reppen, Gwen Stockwell, Dan Varisco

Mr. Penczer's Advisee Group

When other advisee groups were busy reading their grades or receiving other important documents, Mr. Penczer's advisee group was busy learning important life skills. We've learned Spanish (Dondè esta Paco?), poetry (Quarter of eight, don't be late), career skills (how to make really good ice-cream), problem solving (Murder at Minnies), and most importantly we learned how to play (playground tag). All these important lessons in the backdrop of interesting and educational assemblies and Mr. Penczer's daily dose of organizational skills.

Rudy Penczer, Jason Gazzilli (Gonzo), Phoebe Hausman-Rogers, Erin Kailey, Matt Thurston, Chris Cardello, Anji Grajewski

Madame Ouwinga's Advisee Group

Give us a snowboard, a skate board, an art room, a flute, a guitar and a song. Mix these with pizzas, ice cream, cakes and stimulating discussions. Top this mixture with creative proposals for Gould in 1994 et nous voilà; le groupe d'Ouwinga par excellence!

Carmen Torres, Rob Blake (Rauwlbiey), Brian Callahan, Leah Bonnema, Nedda Campbell, Dwight Blake, Stefan Foord (Stiffy)

Mr. Sanborn's Advisee Group

"We must be in the front row . . . ." Mr. Sanborn's advisee group met daily in the best seats in the house. Where else could one enjoy the warm morning breath of a nervous llama so up close and personal? Our day usually started with several rituals which included getting Slugger Landry's shirttails tucked in, nudging Peter Cline to wake him up, and checking in on Meredith Mason's current medical condition. Meredith DuPuy was spotted on several occasions during the year, most sightings occurring at bull fights. One of our highlights this year was watching Anne Liese bowl for the first time. Mr. Sanborn put on a bowling clinic for the group while Cliffy Rackliffe tested the durability of the pin setting equipment. Bowling is cool. Finally, good luck to everyone's big brother, Eric Harlow. Hanging out with a predominantly freshman group this year will certainly help you out as you become freshman again in September.

Mr. Sanborn (Strike-Man), Meredith Mason (Mere II), Anne Lise Bass (Annie), Peter Cline (Pete), Eric Harlow (Harlow), Eric Rackliffe (Cliffy), Meredith DuPuy (Mere I), Tim Landry (Slugger)

Mr. Sigel's Advisee Group

Died hair, baggy pants and the strut of a penguin, as they hoot and holler down the pathways of Gould, holding a pant loop with a death grip in fear of crossing that boundary between looking cool and pure embarrassment. Uniformly packed they seem to be one, but the make up of this bunch is quite unique. This energy and strength will change them for their action would be showing them defeat and weaken them. All though at times they are unbearable I would not trade them for the world. Thanks for a great year. I will miss you all.

Bon Gardner's Advisee Group

With no advisees left after graduation (they are all in college or Thomaston), five bold seniors jumped into the void to lead the new group through the long winter into May sunshine. Jon Edwards, Luke Grey, Shinzo Honde, Daryl Seitzer, and Po Yates fought to guard our turf in Bingham and left Jill Huntsberger and Go Ishii to face an uncertain future with Roadway.

Miss Breslau's Advisee Group

It's another advisee function and Miss Breslau slaves over Pizzas she has decided to make for us from scratch, while all the advisees trickle in one by one. That is everyone except Eric . . . Where is Eric anyway? Anna runs in a little late and a bit flustered, but she's there. Ben has to eat and run so that he can be on time to lacrosse practice. Strazza has made himself at home by now on the couch in Miss Breslau's living room where he switches through the television channels looking for the "chicks". Elin jumps up as she notices him flip by MTV that a Swedish singer was on and Jessie and Chris are chatting about their accomplishments at the Freestyle and Nordic National Championships. There was even one time when Miss Breslau decided breakfast would be a good idea. After too many cups of coffee the group sang the saddest "Happy Birthday" ever sung, and Chris is served French toast with a glowing candle. Oh, well, it was the thought that counts because the candle melted in the French toast, leaving a waxy film behind . . . so what, we've had fun!

Mr. Nelson's Advisee Group

"I don't Want to do windows!" "Can I hire someone to do my dish duty?" "What's the worst thing that will happen if I don't do dishes?" "Me? Late to assembly?" "If you can't find me, You can't ask me . . . "

P. Nelson, Amos Hausman-Rogers, Doug Delise, Jon Wood, Mike Cleary, Sven Vogtland

Ms. Lee, Kwok Wong, Brandy Haught, Tamara Bucknell-Pogue, Ian Cleary, Peter Voigt, Eugene Covington (JP)

Ms. Lee's Advisee Group

The Best . . .
Pictures speak louder than words, and one glance at the accompanying photo convinces all that Ms. Lee's advisee group 1993-94 was the best. Intelligence, wit, and positive attitudes kept us in good spirits through hours of dish duty, and diners of bad pizza. We will miss our senior anchors, Kwok and Brandy, but are confident that membership in this group has prepared them for anything they may face in life.

Mr. Dohrmann's Advisee Group

The advisor says, "Oh Master, what advice do you have for my advisees who are in need of wisdom?" The Master said, "A young man's duty is to behave well to his parents at home and to his elders abroad, to be cautious in giving promises and punctual in keeping them, to have kindly feelings toward everyone, but seek the intimacy of the good. If, when all that is done, he has any energy to spare, let them study the polite arts."

Mr. Dohrmann, Jackie Chow, Seth Dodge, Liz Gasser, Takehito Kasahra, Kenichi Kawaji, Korrie McIntyre, Sang-Woo Park, Lanny Popoola

Mr. Ford (Mr. Ford). Corcoran, Jason (Dead, Pinkie). Hickey, Darby (Darbos). Lee, Eung-Kwon (Lee). Pavlou, Igor. Smith, Andrew (Trigger). Sysko, Dustin

Mr. Ford's Advisee Group

Created to Define Excellence and adaptability in the dishroom, this team has found other areas to explore as well. We are filing away out many offers, but found out just today we can't get the drawer open. Does anyone have a simple plot video we could review for you?

Mrs. Johnson's Advisee Group

Nancy was never late to assembly, while Steve would slink in five minutes late after just awakening. Between Mel and Sam there wasn't a day when either of them weren't sick. Miguel and Laura just smiled and nodded.

But Mrs. Johnson was always concerned with what was going on in our personal lives.

Mrs. Johnson, Steve Brand, Miguel Ferandez, Laura Castells, Sam Decker, Nancy Morgan, Melinda Johansen

Mr. Newell's Advisee Group

First there is Newell, with his quick sarcastic comebacks and military authority he manages to keep us in line. Then there is Crockett, brown nose of the century but all around good guy. Now Fraser is a different story, with his leather jacket and sport bike he's shortly followed by me. Mac gets there right when we sit down, forcing us to stand once again. Morales can't keep his mouth shut for one minute and often draws Newell's attention. Last but not least we have Josh battling the clock to make it to assembly. Of course I am part of the group too but I think we are out of time.

Mr. Newell (Noodle), Jarrod Crockett (Crockett, Rocket), Mac McGuire (Mac), Josh Otten (J.O., Joshie), Nate Wight (Wight's tights, Albino), Jason Fraser (Frase, Jackflash), Shawn Morales (Morales), Mike Rackliffe (Mikey, Rat, Macgyver)

Mr. Baker's Advisee Group

This year has been good. We will miss our one senior Cliffy dearly. Some of us wish Cliffy wasn't leaving next year, others believe he isn't leaving. Greg managed a couple Hump Day Breakfasts this year. We think non-advisee Chris Shearer managed more. We established that "The Kate" has no friends, and that her father has no friends either. Asked Molly how she wanted us to remember her she simply said "Just sort of forget me". NO WAY. We couldn't forget ol' Molly. Due to illness Lucas was not able to attend dish duty, ever. Bonnie howd' you fall off that curb, maybe we should ask Mark. What does Dr. O's class and Brittany Have in common . . .? Sparticus. And Mr. Baker, Don't you owe us some baked goods? Thanks for everything. We appreciate it. By the way, Greg? Do you have two of those shirts?

Mr. Davis' Advisee Group

The Davis Advisee group is made up of the radically superior Red Heads and four other domestics. Though Davis, himself one of the four, was very forward in his desire to become superior, i.e. Red headed, it was found to be dangerous for a man of his age (51) to undergo the magical coloring process. With 100% Polar bear participation (go MJ) it is obvious which advisee group has the power to tolerate the biting cold. Mrs. Davis will be remembered by the graduating advisees as a "one of a kind cook". Magnificent feasts were regularly prepared and paid for by back breaking labor. If we weren't wading in the November waters of Songo to retrieve the float we were spending hours "enjoying" the music at Sammy Kershaw's "Queen of my double wide trailer." Mr. Davis' favorite tunes, The indigo Girls, were a special treat that added atmosphere to his church like living room. Graduating members included Pat "Hippie", "Is that a girl or a boy" Cote, Greg "Matt" Mathews, Sarah "related to whom" Burgess and her un-brother Brian "Carrot top" Burgess. MJ Reed was almost forgotten and had she not made it to assembly once in a while would have missed one of Keavy Cooks many announcements. Obviously the most extroverted of the group, Keavy and MJ will be left for Mr. Davis to contend with alone.

Mr. Baker (Aah, Mr. Baker?), Bill Clifford (Cliffy/ Lunch Bucket), Molly Maloney (Maloney), Kate Graham (The "Kate"), Bonnie Croker (Crocks), Lucas St. Clair (Luc), Greg Renna (Renna), Brittany Cooper (Cooper)

Mr. Rackliffe's Advisee Group

Mr. Rackliffe's advisee group has had a fun filled year full of pasta, Mexican, and pancake dinners to after dinner home run derbies. At the end of the year they took a group outing to a nearby mini golf and go-cart track where Josh Paquette shot 10 under and Chris Shearer came home with the checkered flag. This year Mr. Rackliffe will be losing 4 members of his group to graduation, leaving Chris Shearer an Joon bum Park to all the undone waffle mix and thick milkshakes. Good luck next year and keep the girls out. We love you Mr. Rackliffe.

Mr. Rackliffe, Josh Paquette, Ahmit Bhat, Jerimiah Donaldson, Joon bum Park, Chris Montgomery, Chris Shearer

Mr. Davis, Pat Cote, Greg Mathews, Sarah Burgess, Brian Burgess, MJ Reed, Keavy Cook

Mr. Hutchin's Advisee Group

In the fall Hutch never had the time to do an advisee function. In the winter Hutch was never here and in the spring since we were so used to not having an advisor we didn't want to do anything. In the morning he tried to take us out for breakfast -making up for his skiing absences- Tutt's was closed- He tried to make the best out of a dining hall meal. It wasn't the same. He made ice cream, we didn't show- except for Thea- It must have been the lure of a function in Holden. Our Big Advisee function this year was dish duty which everybody loved so much. To end things on a good note this year we can say that at least he tried and he was always there to hand out our grades.

Mr. Hutchins ("Huggie Bear" Hutchins), Chris Millet, Matt Lemieux, Nate Bartell, Thea Murthey, Tom Eckfelt, Jodi Odlin, Mark Haries

Miss Head's Advisee Group

Favorite Job at Dish Duty: J.P. trash. H.H. take out. E.R. putting in new soap. M.B. carry out. A.M. take out. N.D. sprayer, H.Q. carry out.

Favorite Seat at Assembly: J.P. don't care. H.H. next to Miss Head. E.R. 2nd row isle. M.B. 2nd row isle. A.M. whatever. N.D. 3rd row 4th seat. H.Q. 3rd row.

Favorite Math Equation: J.P. J=J. H.H. y=y. E.R. E=E. M.B. y=mx+b. A.M. x=x. N.D. Quadratic Formula. H.Q. 1+1=2

Favorite Dog- Tonka

Miss Head, Jesse Peck (Rob), Hillary Harrison (Hill Billy), Erik Renna (Buck), Maggie Buckingham (Marge), Amber Mackenzie (Tiny Avenger), Nick Dudley (Studley), Hannah Quimby (HQ)

Ms. Whalen's Group

Just close enough to front and center to be noticed if you are late (Asako) for assembly is Ms. Whalen's advisory group. The two A's (Ali & Amy) are always early, Sigrid begrudges morning till almost break time unless bribed with Ms. Whalen's banana bread, Brendon constantly reassured us that it was never too cold out to wear a jacket, and Dane hopes Ms. Whalen doesn't notice his untucked shirt. Some advisee groups went for "Hump Day" breakfasts while we opted for Thursday night Seinfeld with brownies, pizza, or B&J's. Breakfast at Tutt's was a special treat- Brendon may never know and Dane could have gone - oops, wrong day, Dane. And can we do dished! "The Pin" came out with fair warning and we knelt down at night and prayed for grilled cheese - a quick bang against the trash hole and volia! Brendon and Dane always looked a bit overwhelmed at the Woman Power in action but quickly learned the task to win points - TRASH. We will all miss Sigrid as a Window Force and Asako who was either in the dishroom before dirty dishes or sick. A good year for us all!

Sigrid Stanley, Ali Astarita, Amy Swinton, Brendon Cooley, Dane Kaiser, Asako Okada (late for picture!)

Mrs. Bunt's Advisee Group

A blend of eastern block, down east, and mid west. From the quiet to the outspoken. We are all very different but we have one common threat: The gift to gab around a few pints of Ben and Jerry's.

Pat Bunt, Anna French, Alistair Parker, Taylor Phillips, Shon Flaherty, Meghan Skea, Dave Bennett, Greta Paula

Andee Morrison, Marlis Hamory, Cory Coogan, Jen Curley, Justin Browne, Togi Perlman, Shelley MacQuin, Amanda Madore

Ms. Morrison's Advisee Group

Despite a deceptively calm morning appearance it didn't take more than a little food to bring out the energy in Ms. Morrison's advisee group. Cooking dinner with only 2 pots and a spoon, or devouring chocolate cake, or eating an early morning breakfast at Tut's brought out more than the early morning grunts.

Mr. McGuire's Advisee Group

The Boys

"The Male is a domestic animal which, if treated with firmness and kindness, can be trained to do most things."
Jilly Cooper

Paul McGuire, Walter Hawkes, David Ortiz, Wardreath Wicks, Chip Liscombe, Chris Rioux

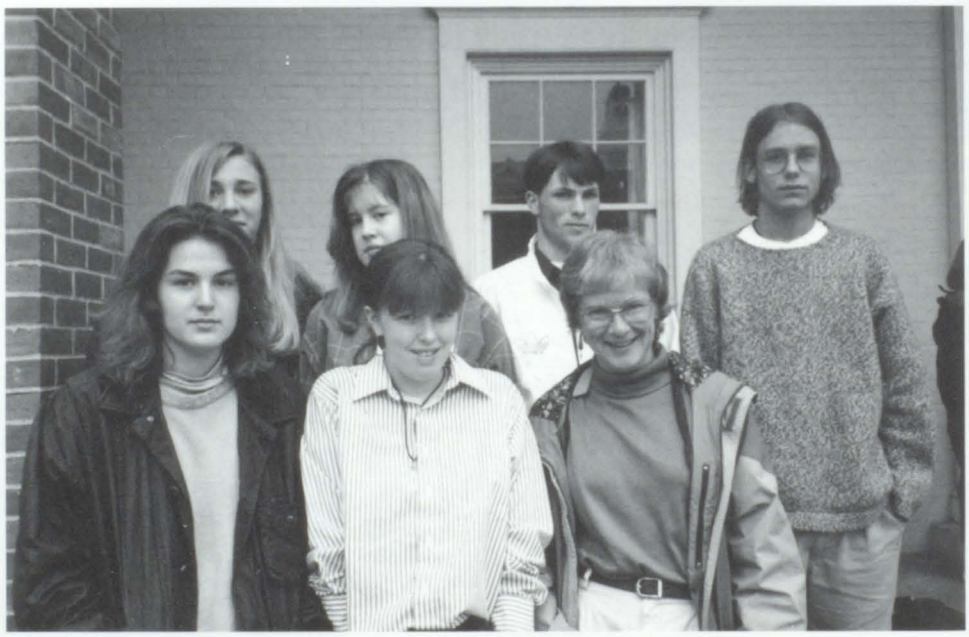
Dr. O's Advisee Group

The "O" zone reports quiet steady progress. Our three seniors - Niccols, Brigitta, and Randy will graduate and go on to college, fame, and fortune. The Juniors - Marie, Kendra, and Rich will move up a notch next year. Jessica still has a long row to hoe.

Marvin Ouwinga (Dr. O), Brigitta Dubin, Randy Schubert, Jessica Fernandez, Niccole Welshimer, Kendra Hutchinson, Marie Lowell, Richard Dowdeswell (Rich)

Mrs. Pooley's Advisee Group

Funny how you get attached to such a motley crew. First, there's Dan "Teddy Roosevelt" Barker, A Four year senior who has come out of his shell to be one of the funniest people I know. Next is Abby Wiggin - quiet, creative, enigmatic, with a deep love for and understanding of the natural world. Cathy Morgan - "Baby Bear" - lives for the day when the ice goes out of Songo Pond and the Polar Bear dips begin. She's shooting for the school record of most years as a Polar Bear. Anna Mosca drives 30 miles to school every day and so far has hit several snow banks, a guard rail, and (almost) a man with a gun. Then, there's Brandon, Mr. Neat and Healthy, who doesn't like coffee or donuts. "There's a cup o grease in each one" Jenn Crowder's the one who barely makes it to assembly on time every day. Finally, there's Derek, who lately joined the group and who surprised me daily with deep thoughts and poetry.



Bonnie Pooley, Dan Barker, Cathy Morgan, Derek Wijsenbeek, Jennefer Crowder, Abby Wiggin, Anna Mosca, Brandon Fulford

Mr. Wight's Advisee Group

A picture is worth a thousand words.

Jess Trundy, Cindy Wheeler, Toby Buckingham, Jon Batten, Rich Davis, Eric Milner, Mr. Wight.

Mr. Alford's Advisee Group

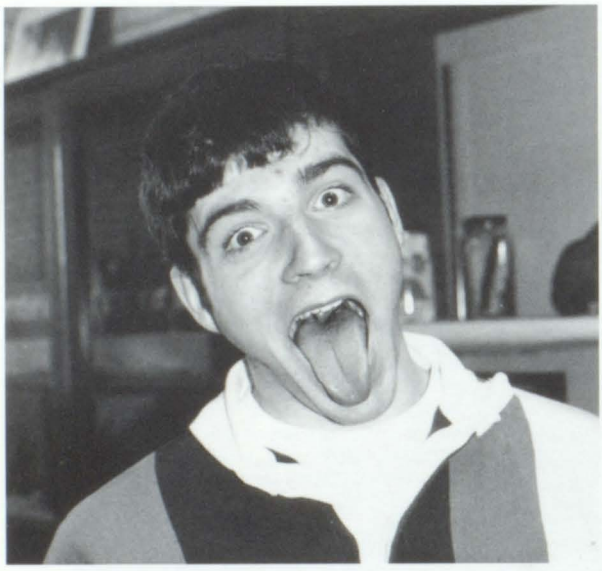
Mr. Alford's advisee group consisted of a menagerie of now famous characters. Juniors were Olympic hopeful and world cup overall champion Sasha Rearick, and Broadway set designer Quentin Stockwell. The sophomores included Vidal Sasoon hair model Ian Bissonnette, and Korean ambassador to the U.S., Sung-Mo Young (hiding behind pillar in this picture). The group was rounded out by the legendary "big three" fortune 500 C.E.O.s B.J. "Mr. Big" Otten, Sarah "The Sledgehammer" Dodge, and finally Renowned artist, politician, and professional lacrosse goaley Zachary "Ironman" Leck. The group will meet next year in Mr. Alford's summer estate in Costa Rica to discuss the future of their combined business venture, Tut's general store & restaurant.

Mr. Alford, Quentin Stockwell, Sasha Rearick, Sung-Mo Young, Ian Bissonnette, BJ Otten, Sarah Dodge, Zack Leck

Ryan B. - "What's a 5 o'clock shadow?"

Matt T. - "What's happening, everything looks fuzzy."

Dwight B. - "Sorry, I'm from Massachusetts. I couldn't tell you who the Bosstones are."



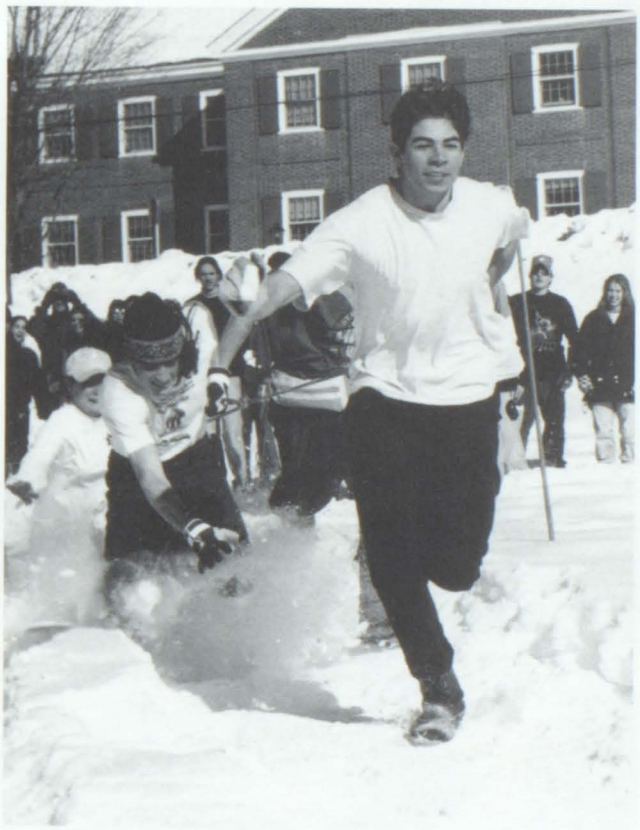
Fred B. - Fred back from a mash at Laurence's.

Jason - "C is for cookie, it's good enough for me."

"Busted! You can't leave campus during school hours."

Ben K. - Kissing up to the photographer.

Mr. Tootlebird!



Dee Seitzer leading to victory.
